Valuable Information.

BOSTON, Dec 12, 1869.

Gentlemen: My only object in giving you this estimonial is to spread valuable information. Having been badly afflicted with Salt Rheum, and the whole surface of my skin being covered with pimples and eruptions, many of which caused me great pain and annoyance, and knowing it to be a blood disease, I took many of the advertised blood preparations, among which was any quantity of Sarsaparilla, without obtaining any benefit, until I commenced taking the VEGETINE; and before I had completed the first bottle I saw that I had got the right medicine. Consequently I followed on with it until I had taken seven bottles, when I was pronounced a well man; and my skin is smooth, and entirely free from pimples and eruptions. I have never enjoyed so good health before, and I attribute it all to the use of VEGETINE. To benefit those afflicted with Rheumatism, I will make mention also of this acute complaint, of which I have suffered so intensely.

C. H. TUCKER, Pas. Ag't Mich. C. R. R.
69 Washington street, Boston.

Every One Speaks Favorably.

EAST MARSHFIELD, Aug. 31, 1870.

MR. STEVENS: Dear Sir: I have been troubled with Canker from childhood, causing my mouth to be sore at times, so that I was unable to eat. Have taken many preparations, but with no effect until I tried your VEGETINE. After taking a few doses, I found it relieved the faintness at the stomach that always accompanies Canker humor; and by the time I had taken the third bottle my mouth was entirely cured. Have not been troubled with it since that time, which is eight months ago. I have recommended it to several of my acquaintances; and every one speaks favorably of its good effect.

Yours truly P. S. SHERMAN.

Report from a Practical Chemist and Apothecary.

BOSTON, May 1, 1871.

DEAR SIR: This is to certify that I have sold at retail, sixty-three dozen (756 bottles) of your VEGETINE since April 12, 1870, and can truly say that it has given the best satisfaction of any remedy, for the complaints for which it is recommended, that I ever sold. Scarcely a day passes without some of my customers testifying to its merits on themselves or their friends. I am personally cognizant of several cases of Scrofulous Tumors being cured by VEGETINE alone in this vicinity.

Very respectfully yours, H. GILMAN,
To H. R. STEVENS, Esq. 468 Broadway.

FURTHER PROOF.

SPRINGFIELD, Me., May 4, 1872.

MR. H. R. STEVENS: My daughter has been out of health for about two years. About a year ago she had a tumor come on her side, which was very painful. I saw VEGETINE advertised in the Farmer, and sent to Bangor and got two bottles. She is now taking the second bottle; her health is much improved, and the tumor is going away as fast as it came. Every one in this vicinity knows what VEGETINE has done for my daughter, and I take every opportunity to recommend it to those who are not aware of its great value. Very respectfully,

MRS. SUSAN C. RANDALL.

VOL. 3. NO. 204. CITY OF KINGSTON, (RONDOUT,) WEDNESDAY, JUNE 17, 1874. WHOLE NO. 824

An Hour of Terror—In the Grip of a Vise Before an Approaching Railway Train.

There arrived in this city Friday morning over the Grand Trunk Railway a man named Patrick McArthur, who met with a thrilling adventure about six miles east of the junction Thursday night. He is a laboring man, and having no money, and failing to get a chance to work his passage down from Port Huron on a boat, he started to walk down on the railroad track, and had nearly completed his journey when the adventure befell him. He lay by during the heat of the day Wednesday, and was walking in the evening to make it up. While crossing the tracks where a switch leads down alongside the main track he got his foot caught fast in a "frog," and his efforts to extricate it were of no avail. He had on a stout boot, and it fitted so closely over the instep that he could not draw his foot out. In fact, the boot was wedged in the "frog" so closely that the man's toes were severely pinched. He pulled this way and that, wrenched and twisted, but the "frog" held the foot like a vise.

At length he could hardly move his leg for the pain, and he found that he must either be run over by the next passing train, or make some one understand his situation. He shouted himself hoarse, but no one came. The nearest house was half a mile away, and if the farmer heard the wild calls for help he gave them no attention. After the man had been a prisoner for upward of an hour, he heard the whistle of a down freight train. It was yet a long way off, and he had a little time to think. He had a match-box in his pocket, papers in his bundle, and the idea came to him to signal the train. Tearing the paper off his bundle and getting at a number of letters, he rolled them into a heap, and for fear that the flame would die out too suddenly he added two flannel shirts from the bundle. The bundle was then made fast to the end of his walking stick, matches produced, and he waited until the head-light of the locomotive should appear up the track.

It finally greeted his vision, looking like a bright white star, as it glistened afar up the track. The rumble of the train grew louder, the star grew larger and brighter. He struck his match. The flame blazed up brightly, but as he moved it toward the bundle a little gust of wind blew it out. Was there time yet? Up the track he could hear the thunder of a hundred heavy wheels, and the great light of the locomotive glared at him like the fiery eye of some wild beast. Another match, an instant of fear and doubt, and then the paper blazed up and curled over and around the bundle and swayed right and left with the night wind. He waved the signal of fire back and forth, and just when he was ready to believe that death under the wheels was certain, he heard the whistle for down brakes.

He could hear the wheels grinding and groaning, the hiss of the steam as the engineer threw back his lever, and then the heavy train came to a stop with the great light shining down upon him, paling his dying signal. He was saved, but the engine had only thirty feet more to go to crush him. The fireman came forward, got a crowbar and released him, and he was taken back to the caboose. The train men were very kind to him, and yesterday he found acquaintances here who arranged for his board until he will be able to work. His foot is badly swollen and very tender, and it will be several days before he will be able to walk.—Detroit Free Press.

Too Enterprising for the Doctor.

One of Boston's well-established physicians, who scarcely finds rest night or day, had occasion recently to engage a nice boy to open and shut the doors and run errands, and hold his horse. The boy was from the country, and evidently possessed an energetic disposition, with a keen eye to business. In order to give information to his patients, the doctor recently had some cards printed, bearing his name, and stating his office hours, as many callers lost valuable time while waiting. These cards disappeared with wonderful rapidity, so much so that the doctor had his suspicions aroused that his new boy was using them up in a clandestine manner. "Jo," said the doctor one morning, "what has become of those cards which I placed on the table in the outer office?"

"Cards, sir!" repeated the boy. "Yes, cards," reiterated the doctor. "I took 'em," replied the boy, proudly. "What have you done with them?" demanded the doctor. "Well, my mother told me before I left home that I must make myself useful to my employer, and so most every day when I haven't anything else to do, I just throw them into the horse cars as they pass the corner." The scene that followed cannot be described; but, after tearing out two handfuls of his own hair, the doctor took one grab at the red head of the enterprising lad, and nearly scalped him. Thus it was that the well-meant endeavors of the young man to promote the interests of his employer were rewarded.—Boston Journal.

A gentleman living on the Savannah river, Georgia, was in the habit of sending his negroes down the river to fish with nets, as the tide served. On one occasion, two of his boys reached the fishing ground before the tide had fallen sufficiently for their purpose. Coffee always goes to sleep when he has nothing else to do. So pushing a pole into the mud, they tied the canoe thereto and lying down intended to sleep until the tide served. But along came a huge devil fish, which grubbed up the pole, and tucking it under his flipper, began towing the canoe and its contents toward the deep water. When the negroes awoke they were terrified well nigh out of their wits. They were proceeding to sea at the rate of about four miles an hour, but the power propelling the canoe was wholly invisible. Their first impulse was to jump overboard, but it occurred to them in time fortunately, that they were unable to swim. Finally the rope by which master devil fish was towing them was cut, and they reached the land in a pitiable state of terror. An individual of this species has been known to take up the kedge of a small schooner and carry it for upward of a mile, towing the vessel that distance, when he dropped the anchor; apparently fatigued with the amusement.

—There is a gentleman living on the Southwestern Railroad near Columbus, Ga., who has thirteen daughters. He buys clothing for them by the wholesale. Thus, when last in Columbus he bought 370 yards of calico, 100 of lawn, 13 corsets, 26 pairs of shoes, and other goods in proportion. Unlike many fathers who have only one daughter, he paid cash for all his purchases. Though an old man, he has never bought a bushel of corn or pound of meat, but raises them himself. He has never sworn an oath, and does not owe a dollar.

—A man at Salisbury, Vt., got a house ready to receive his bride lately, when she suddenly changed her mind and refused to marry him; but he revenged himself by marrying her sister, just seven days after his disappointment.

Valuable Information.

BOSTON, Dec 12, 1869.

Gentlemen: My only object in giving you this estimonial is to spread valuable information. Having been badly afflicted with Salt Rheum, and the whole surface of my skin being covered with pimples and eruptions, many of which caused me great pain and annoyance, and knowing it to be a blood disease, I took many of the advertised blood preparations, among which was any quantity of Sarsaparilla, without obtaining any benefit, until I commenced taking the VEGETINE; and before I had completed the first bottle I saw that I had got the right medicine. Consequently I followed on with it until I had taken seven bottles, when I was pronounced a well man; and my skin is smooth, and entirely free from pimples and eruptions. I have never enjoyed so good health before, and I attribute it all to the use of VEGETINE. To benefit those afflicted with Rheumatism, I will make mention also of this acute complaint, of which I have suffered so intensely.

C. H. TUCKER, Pas. Ag't Mich. C. R. R.
69 Washington street, Boston.

Every One Speaks Favorably.

EAST MARSHFIELD, Aug. 31, 1870.

MR. STEVENS: Dear Sir: I have been troubled with Canker from childhood, causing my mouth to be sore at times, so that I was unable to eat. Have taken many preparations, but with no effect until I tried your VEGETINE. After taking a few doses, I found it relieved the faintness at the stomach that always accompanies Canker humor; and by the time I had taken the third bottle my mouth was entirely cured. Have not been troubled with it since that time, which is eight months ago. I have recommended it to several of my acquaintances; and every one speaks favorably of its good effects.

Yours truly P. S. SHERMAN.

Report from a Practical Chemist and Apothecary.

BOSTON, May 1, 1871.

DEAR SIR: This is to certify that I have sold at retail, sixty-three dozen (756 bottles) of your VEGETINE since April 12, 1870, and can truly say that it has given the best satisfaction of any remedy, for the complaints for which it is recommended, that I ever sold. Scarcely a day passes without some of my customers testifying to its merits on themselves or their friends. I am personally cognizant of several cases of Scrofulous Tumors being cured by VEGETINE alone in this vicinity.

Very respectfully yours, H. GILMAN,
To H. R. STEVENS, Esq. 468 Broadway.

FURTHER PROOF.

SPRINGFIELD, Me., May 4, 1872.

MR. H. R. STEVENS: My daughter has been out of health for about two years. About a year ago she had a tumor come on her side, which was very painful. I saw VEGETINE advertised in the Farmer, and sent to Bangor and got two bottles. She is now taking the second bottle; her health is much improved, and the tumor is going away as fast as it came. Every one in this vicinity knows what VEGETINE has done for my daughter, and I take every opportunity to recommend it to those who are not aware of its great value. Very respectfully,

MRS. SUSAN C. RANDALL.

An Hour of Terror—In the Grip of a Vise Before an Approaching Railway Train.

There arrived in this city Friday morning over the Grand Trunk Railway a man named Patrick McArthur, who met with a thrilling adventure about six miles east of the junction Thursday night. He is a laboring man, and having no money, and failing to get a chance to work his passage down from Port Huron on a boat, he started to walk down on the railroad track, and had nearly completed his journey when the adventure befell him. He lay by during the heat of the day Wednesday, and was walking in the evening to make it up. While crossing the tracks where a switch leads down alongside the main track he got his foot caught fast in a "frog," and his efforts to extricate it were of no avail. He had on a stout boot, and it fitted so closely over the instep that he could not draw his foot out. In fact, the boot was wedged in the "frog" so closely that the man's toes were severely pinched. He pulled this way and that, wrenched and twisted, but the "frog" held the foot like a vise.

At length he could hardly move his leg for the pain, and he found that he must either be run over by the next passing train, or make some one understand his situation. He shouted himself hoarse, but no one came. The nearest house was half a mile away, and if the farmer heard the wild calls for help he gave them no attention. After the man had been a prisoner for upward of an hour, he heard the whistle of a down freight train. It was yet a long way off, and he had a little time to think. He had a match-box in his pocket, papers in his bundle, and the idea came to him to signal the train. Tearing the paper off his bundle and getting at a number of letters, he rolled them into a heap, and for fear that the flame would die out too suddenly he added two flannel shirts from the bundle. The bundle was then made fast to the end of his walking stick, matches produced, and he waited until the head-light of the locomotive should appear up the track.

It finally greeted his vision, looking like a bright white star, as it glistened afar up the track. The rumble of the train grew louder, the star grew larger and brighter. He struck his match. The flame blazed up brightly, but as he moved it toward the bundle a little gust of wind blew it out. Was there time yet? Up the track he could hear the thunder of a hundred heavy wheels, and the great light of the locomotive glared at him like the fiery eye of some wild beast. Another match, an instant of fear and doubt, and then the paper blazed up and curled over and around the bundle and swayed right and left with the night wind. He waved the signal of fire back and forth, and just when he was ready to believe that death under the wheels was certain, he heard the whistle for down brakes.

He could hear the wheels grinding and groaning, the hiss of the steam as the engineer threw back his lever, and then the heavy train came to a stop with the great light shining down upon him, paling his dying signal. He was saved, but the engine had only thirty feet more to go to crush him. The fireman came forward, got a crowbar and released him, and he was taken back to the caboose. The train men were very kind to him, and yesterday he found acquaintances here who arranged for his board until he will be able to work. His foot is badly swollen and very tender, and it will be several days before he will be able to walk.—Detroit Free Press.

Too Enterprising for the Doctor.

One of Boston's well-established physicians, who scarcely finds rest night or day, had occasion recently to engage a nice boy to open and shut the doors and run errands, and hold his horse. The boy was from the country, and evidently possessed an energetic disposition, with a keen eye to business. In order to give information to his patients, the doctor recently had some cards printed, bearing his name, and stating his office hours, as many callers lost valuable time while waiting. These cards disappeared with wonderful rapidity, so much so that the doctor had his suspicions aroused that his new boy was using them up in a clandestine manner. "Jo," said the doctor one morning, "what has become of those cards which I placed on the table in the outer office?"

"Cards, sir!" repeated the boy. "Yes, cards," reiterated the doctor. "I took 'em," replied the boy, proudly. "What have you done with them?" demanded the doctor. "Well, my mother told me before I left home that I must make myself useful to my employer, and so most every day when I haven't anything else to do, I just throw them into the horse cars as they pass the corner." The scene that followed cannot be described; but, after tearing out two handfuls of his own hair, the doctor took one grab at the red head of the enterprising lad, and nearly scalped him. Thus it was that the well-meant endeavors of the young man to promote the interests of his employer were rewarded.—Boston Journal.

A gentleman living on the Savannah river, Georgia, was in the habit of sending his negroes down the river to fish with nets, as the tide served. On one occasion, two of his boys reached the fishing ground before the tide had fallen sufficiently for their purpose. Cuffee always goes to sleep when he has nothing else to do. So pushing a pole into the mud, they tied the canoe thereto and lying down intended to sleep until the tide served. But along came a huge devil fish, which grubbed up the pole, and tucking it under his flipper, began towing the canoe and its contents toward the deep water. When the negroes awoke they were terrified well nigh out of their wits. They were proceeding to sea at the rate of about four miles an hour, but the power propelling the canoe was wholly invisible. Their first impulse was to jump overboard, but it occurred to them in time fortunately, that they were unable to swim. Finally the rope by which master devil fish was towing them was cut, and they reached the land in a pitiable state of terror. An individual of this species has been known to take up the kedge of a small schooner and carry it for upward of a mile, towing the vessel that distance, when he dropped the anchor, apparently fatigued with the amusement.

—There is a gentleman living on the Southwestern Railroad near Columbus, Ga., who has thirteen daughters. He buys clothing for them by the wholesale. Thus, when last in Columbus he bought 370 yards of calico, 100 of lawn, 13 corsets, 26 pairs of shoes, and other goods in proportion. Unlike many fathers who have only one daughter, he paid cash for all his purchases. Though an old man, he has never bought a bushel of corn or pound of meat, but raises them himself. He has never sworn an oath, and does not owe a dollar.

—A man at Salisbury, Vt., got a house ready to receive his bride lately, when she suddenly changed her mind and refused to marry him; but he revenged himself by marrying her sister, just seven days after his disappointment.

The Daily Freeman

Kingston, Wednesday Morning, June 17.

Almost every town or city on earth is vain of some local peculiarty or other. Brooklyn is vain of Beecher; New York is vain of its aggregate population and of the Central Park, Boston of its ancient connection with the incipiency of the Revolution and of the big organ, and now the little city of Auburn has taken to bragging about the state prison, which as everybody knows, is located within its peaceful boundaries. It would seem at the first blush of it, that Auburn would scarcely feel complimented by the presence of so ghastly a monument built to human crime and weakness, but there is no accounting for tastes.

We hope the Tribune will not suppose that we use its name in this paragraph for the sake of inducing that paper to quote what we say about it, and of thus obtaining a little gratuitous back-action advertising for ourselves: for no such base and selfish motive animates our bosom in hereby recording our ready agreement with the journal founded by Horace Greeley, in its condemnation of the word "suicided." The newspapers in this age are purveyors (as the London pickle-makers say of their acidulous trade) to the President, the Queen, republicans and the yeomanry in general, of thought-vehicles—otherwise language. Editors and current writers are the responsible fathers and mothers of words, literatim et spellatim, and should be properly sober and conservative.

We expected it would come some time, but hardly that we should live to see it. Behold, however, ere the gray hairs of life's ultimate years have quite covered our intellectual poll, it is upon us. What? this. The hour when the managers of theological schools have conceded that all knowledge is one inseparable whole. It is proposed by certain daring Methodists of the great Itinerary to make the sciences of medicine, the law and physiology prominent adjuncts to the customary course through which students for the ministry are required to pass. This is fortunate enough to meet our undiscounted approbation. Human and sermonic skeletons naturally tend to the same Golgotha and can best be studied together.

An editorial writer in the Herald is glad to think that Summer has come. He intimates his intention to take his vacation before long, and tells us that he longs "to steal out under the shady trees." We must confess our surprise that so thoroughly moral and law-abiding a journal should retain on its staff a man who thus openly confesses a larcenous disposition; but a long series of apologetic performances for knavery and rascality, done in the interest of a large circulation, will finally obfuscate and muddle the clearest conscience and most healthy morality. We trust the police, if sober, will keep a sharp eye on that fellow.

Speaking of Shirts.

Speaking of shirts, the eloquent fellow who occasionally writes up some new thing in the industrial line for the World (with a big W) is too much for us. He begins his last effort for his paper in the following overwhelming way: -- "When poor Tom Hood, lying on his bed of death, wrote the "Song of the Shirt," in that masculine garment he typified the whole domain of clothes. He who writes the new "Song of the Shirt" will write a pæan; that manly winding-sheet which Tam O'Shanter called a "cutty sark," even now signifies a flag of truce to pale cheeks and wasted frames, but the time will come when rosy-cheeked girls will rally around it as did the heretics around the white-plumed helmet of Henri of Navarre, and it will wave victoriously over the destruction and rout of consumption, headache, and pain in the back, foes which do mightily oppress, as did that famed feather over the prostrate enemies of the Bearnese."

We should like to praise the above noble strain as it deserves, but never had such a "realizing sense" of our incompetency to measure up to the requirements of so fine a tail (tale, we should say) as we feel at the present moment. A modest remark or two, however, we beg to make. If a shirt (Heaven forgive us for mentioning the horrid thing so often), if a shirt, we say, as Tom Hood wrote about it, typifies "the whole domain of clothes"—or the domain of whole clothes—why not dress symbolically; in the same way as the dying soldier always does when he wraps himself up in the national flag—the star-spangled banner? If this should be objected to by any stickler for old-fashioned conventionalities, we desire to have it understood that the responsibility for the natural inference we make from what the scholarly writer says, rests with him—not with us. If, furthermore, "that manly winding-sheet which Tam O'Shanter called a 'cutty sark,' means just a common two-dollar shirt and nothing more, as we suppose it does, what a brilliant imagination the author of the foregoing neatly-bottled extract must have, to call it "a flag of truce to pale cheeks and wasted frames." Now, if we are not gone clean mad at meeting with so wonderful an essay on manufactured muslin, a flag of truce is useless unless it is hoisted on something, so that it can conspicuously waved in air. How this could be done in the case suggested, without making the foolish to laugh and the reverent to grieve, we leave the author to tell. And then, the idea of "rosy-cheeked girls" rallying around a flag of truce which is supposed to be flourished by others with "pale cheeks and wasted frames"—well, it staggers us to think of. Besides, the idea of comparing a clean shirt (for it is to be a clean one of course, with bosom studs and all that) with the white-plumed helmet of Henri (with an i) of Navarre, beats Shakespeare, John Milton, John Hay and Mark Twain all cremated into one. And, great Jerusalem, just to think of the boldness of the metaphorical idea of fancying a shirt (one of Ward's best) waving victoriously over consumption * * * and pain in the back. Does he mean that pain in the back can be cured by a man's swinging a shirt over his head; what will happen if he puts the shirt on? Come now, you eloquent fellow, hold on! Don't write that "pæan" until the weather gets cool next fall; that is if you are going to write it yourself—and we are certain you can do it and make it wittier than Hood's Bridge of Sighs and funnier than Tennyson's "In Memoriam." The less you have to say, however, about the Bear-Knees the more modest people will think you.

Eccentrics.

Some gentle quill-driver, who resembles the youth mentioned in Gray's Elegy, inasmuch as he is "unknown to fortune and to fame,' tells a perspiring world that if it yearns to be present at the annual exercises at Rutger's College, it must roll off to New Brunswick without delay. He further informs us, with no attempt to conceal his delight, that after the D. D.s have been "manufactured" (his word—not a paraphrase of ours), the Trustees will give the Alumni a dinner. Of the excellence and abundance of that prospective banquet we do not feel free to speak. The fullness of New Jersey will doubtless figure at "the spread." It is a shade late for oysters and clams, perhaps, but vegetables of perfect succulence and soups appropriately seasoned will combine to make the hungry Alumni forget the limp and unsavory bivalves; and soup, like death in Mrs. Hemans' poem, has all seasons for its own. After the pre-eminent stomachs of the visiting mummies and of the new-born babes of Alma Mater cry, "Hold, enough," even under the protest of a sad regret that they cannot hold more, then the real fun of commencement commences. The plethoric and peaceful Pauline pugilists are to waddle ('twill be their best gait) to what our informant calls "a handsome Masonic theatre," to be tickled, stimulated and provoked to innocent laughter. The regular and professional humorists being for the most part absent in the Holy Land or too far removed by reason of the awful fees they asked for first class fun, the Alumni compassed the end and saved money by coaxing Rev. Mr. Talmage of Brooklyn to address them.

Having premised thus much, we will now sharpen our pencil and then proceed to make another point. Probably the better way will be to let the writer from Rutger's insert a sentence of his own in this precise spot. Here it is. Referring to Mr. Talmage's talk, he says:

"This is expected to be a great treat to our rural friends, who have only heard of the eccentric preacher afar off."

That word "eccentric" does it; indeed it does two things, both remarkable and unchangeable. First, in the judgment of the solid men who don't stick out in any direction, save at the epigastrium, the word "eccentric" relegates Mr. Talmage to the limbo where all other performers, such as acrobats, champion bare-back riders, fellows who chew hot charcoal, prima donnæ, magnetic and marvellous kings and queens of tragedy, and so on, forever abide, work and suffer. Second, it compels the coming of a crowd to hear and look at such a man, who, addle-heads as most of them are, indulge in a cosy, soothing sense of being somehow superior to the magician of the hour. Ah,—but what's the use? We had nearly expressed a wish for a benison from the kindly gods—a wish for power to cover the level-headed, unconscious, presumptuous, cotton-stuffed donkeys all over with the saliva of our boundless contempt—but, we are suffocated by the unanswerable question, Cui Bono—what's the use? Suppose we should try to explain that the world moves in an eccentric orbit because an ellipse is the most intricate and beautiful geometrical figure; suppose we should try to tell our "rural friends" in New Jersey and elsewhere that the greatest things which have ever been done in discovery, invention, science, literature and the fine arts, have been almost invariably the children of what the monotonous worshippers of the common-place style "eccentricity?" Pshaw! let the fraternity—not many of them—who don't conceive it to be the chief end of existence to be perpetually returning to a given point by equal arcs, take comfort. Let not Mr. Talmage worry. Fifty Doctrinal Dullards who will hear his speech at Rutger's would give six inches off their ears to be able to talk and teach as well, if it were not for a poltroon's dread of a fool's cheap epithet. When Dr. Robert Hall was remonstrated with for making the people laugh in church, he queried of the faultfinder: "Brother, can you imagine what you would have done if it had pleased God to have given you a grain of wit?"

—Our gallantry toward the gentle sex leads us to express the greatest satisfaction in the news from Spain that the Carlists have left Estella.

—The New York papers are scarce of sensations and begin to prophesy the coming of cholera. If they could pound a little decency into the heads of their Street Commissioners they would not have any cause for alarm.

—Ultra and unpractical temperance people who have so severely denounced Gov. Dix ought to be very much surprised at the soundness of his views and the consistency of his conduct as shown by his letter to the Syracuse Journal.

—Mr. Beecher has had his righteous wrath excited by the frauds and scandals lately revealed in Brooklyn. He wants the residents of that village to arise and put down this sort of thing and save their good name. If more of our preachers openly denounced official dishonesty there would be less of it.

—Dr. Uling, the man who attempted to swindle the life insurance company by the little brick dodge, has been sentenced to eighteen months' imprisonment. They stretched a point of law a trifle, but justice is done, at any rate.

—The Duke of Somerset has been making a speech about newspaper correspondents and says much in their favor and a good deal in gentle irony. But as the Duke never run a newspaper some little allowance must be made for him, poor fellow!

—The baggage-smashers are warned that an old traveler is on the road with a trunk containing compartments filled with nitro-glycerine. But then you couldn't kill a baggage-smasher by blowing him up—only shake him a little, that's all.

—It is sad to witness the effect of hot weather on the gentlemen of the press. The Albany Journal produces "program" and the Express trots out "boquet." What's to become of our French if this sort of thing continues?

—The most sensible action that could have been taken by them was the resolution by the alumni of West Point to hold a re-union next year, on the centennial anniversary of Bunker Hill, and invite graduates from all sections of the country to participate. This is the right sort of reconciliation, only it should have come sooner.

—The new independent party in the west seems to be an interestidg infant, and the old politicians gather around it and pat it approvingly on the back and say what a nice boy it is, to be sure. But the boy seems to have its eyes open, and whatever its merits or demerits don't mean to be fooled by officious office-seekers.

—There is sound common sense in the remark of the Greeley, Col., Tribune, that "For a man who has succeeded in saving nothing in the east there are no inducements offered in Colorado." Or anywhere else, it might have added; for brains, economy and honesty form a good stock in trade anywhere, and without them a man is a poor shoat.

—It is noted by some papers, as if deserving of severe comment, that in the excursion of American pilgrims to Rome the jolliest fellows were the priests, who sang comic songs and kept the crowd in great humor. Well, why not? Shouldn't a spiritual leader be the happiest, best-humored fellow of all society? Out upon those who want their theology served to them in long-faced doses!

—In Vera Cruz, Mexico, they have a very compulsory system of education. Whenever a child of either sex between the prescribed ages is seen upon the streets during school hours a policeman conducts it to the nearest police station, whence, after name, age, residence and names of parents have been recorded, it is sent to school. Vera Cruz has also a public wash-house, occupying two sides of a square. Through the middle are two large marble troughs, with fifty subdivisions on each side. An abundance of clear water is provided and the accommodations are free to all.

PARIS, June 16.—The republican journals to-day speak in most eulogistic terms of the members of both the Right and Left Centres of the Assembly, because of their vote yesterday against restoration of a monarchy. They say the vote in the Assembly, though it does not proclaim a republic, shows that a monarchy is impossible.

Orleanist journals affect to consider the action of the Assembly leaves the situation unchanged; but express belief, nevertheless, that the consequence of the vote will be the consolidation of President MacMahon's powers.

PARIS, June 16.—In the Assembly to-day on reading of the journal of yesterday's proceedings loud complaints were made by members of the inaccuracy of the lists of yeas and nays. Gen. Cissey and three others said they had voted in favor of the motion for urgency on the Left Centre's bill.

A Deputy who voted against the motion declared that seven members of the Left, whose names were recorded in its favor, were not present when the vote was taken. He demanded rectification of the vote, which according to his statement ought to stand 339 affirmatives to 340 negatives.

M. de Francklin, of the extreme Right, formally moved that the vote in question be declared void.

M. Buflet, President of the Assembly, maintained the validity of the record.

The Right Centre presented a constituent resolution defining the powers of President MacMahon. It was referred to the Committee of Thirty.

The result of the decision will be to draw several hundred thousand dollars from the treasury.

THE NATIONAL CAPITAL.

A Censorious Report.

WASHINGTON, June 16.—The select committee to inquire into the affairs of the District of Columbia have made their report. It makes thirty printed pages. They review the conduct of the District government generally, and say that, taking into consideration the expense involved in a comprehensive plan of improvements, the committee are of opinion that the Board of Public Works adopted an erroneous, and in its results a vicious method of letting contracts for this work, namely: without competition open to the public; and that the methods adopted by the Board resulted in the payment of an increased price over and above what would have been paid if open, fair and free competition had been invited. This system made easy another reprehensible feature of this business, viz: awarding contracts to persons who were not expected to perform them, but who were thereby enabled to sell them for a consideration to others to execute. The committee condemn the loose manner of doing business, saying that notwithstanding the most extensive operations were being carried on and expenditures made by the million there were no stated times for Board meetings, and but comparatively few Board meetings were in fact held; but entries were made on the records purporting to contain the proceedings of the Board, which were in fact made up by the Secretary from letters and papers that came to the office and from directions made by the Vice-President. Some of these entries were made of business transacted by the Vice-President at his private office and afterwards placed on the records as having been business transacted by the Board. The Board, during the three years it has been in existence, has done nothing in the way of verifying the accounts of these two officers. This is negligence not to be excused in those in whom such important trusts were confided. The committee say from the best information attainable the debt of the District in excess of the $10,000,000 limitation fixed by act of Congress, amounts in the aggregate to $3,747,-858. This is an absolute debt after exhausting every available resource near or remote for its payment, unless a new tax for the purpose should be levied; but this is not the whole floating or unfunded liability resting upon the people of this District. The total obligations for which the Board of Public Works and the District are liable may be stated at $7,683,756; total burden, all things considered, $20,916,008. The committee are unable to see but one way in which the Board could have expected to pay this large debt, and that is by receiving aid from Congress, as it must have occurred to them that the resources of the District could not be taxed sufficiently to pay them, as was shown by one of the counsel for the District government.

Nominee for Assistant Secretary of State.

The President has nominated John L. Cadwallader of New York as Assistant Secretary of State.

THE NOBLE RED MAN.

General Custar Prepared to Swoop Down Upon Him.

ST. PAUL, MINN., June 16.—A telegram received at General Terry's headquarters to-day from General Custar at Fort Lincoln stating that a small party of Sioux appeared on the river bank opposite Fort Berthold agency the morning before at 7 o'clock and commenced firing into the village. Indians from the agency at once crossed the river and were met by about 400 Sioux. A short fight ensued in which five Rees and one Grosventre were killed and one Mandam mortally wounded. This is doubtless the party who have been threatening for some time the Berthold agency. The Indians at Fort Lincoln and a party of Arickarees and Mandams, who have just returned from the Indian Territory, are wild with excitement. The Indian scouts can scarcely wait for General Custar's movements, they are so eager for blood, scalps and revenge; but they will not have long to wait, as Custar's cavalry expedition is nearly ready to leave Fort Lincoln, final preparations having been completed by officers of the Seventh Cavalry now in this city. Gen. Custar expected to move next Sunday, but may start earlier in consequence of this news.

UNITED STATES CONGRESS.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, June 16.

The Senate then took up the post office appropriation bill. It was explained by West, who said the amount appropriated last year was $34,419,000, and this year the amount was $36,341,000, an increase of $1,922,000. This increase was due to the extension of the service throughout the country. While the increase of the service had been between 7 and 8 per cent. the increase in expenses had been but 5½ per cent. so the bill was in the line of economy. The bill was then read through and the amendments recommended by the Committee on Appropriations agreed to, with the exception of the first one requiring that postage shall hereafter be prepaid on all mailable matter at the time of mailing, and all acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed. The amendments agreed to were as follows: Limiting the free delivery system to cities of a population exceeding 30,000 person's, and striking out the clause inserted by the House providing that monthly and annual reports of the Department of Agriculture shall pass free through the mails.

Mr. ALLISON of Iowa, from the joint select committee to investigate the management of the government of the District of Columbia, made a report which he said was unanimous. He also reported a bill for the government of the District of Columbia as a substitute for the one reported a few days ago. Placed on the calendar.

Mr. SHERMAN moved an amendment to the post office appropriation bill that all newspaper and periodical publications mailed from the known office of publication or news agency addressed to regular subscribers or news agents shall be charged at the following rates: On newspapers and periodical publications four cents for each pound or fraction thereof, provided that the rate of postage on newspapers or periodicals not exceeding two ounces in weight, and circulars, when the same are deposited in the letter carrier office for delivery by the office or its carriers, shall be uniform at one cent each, but periodicals weighing more than two ounces shall be subject to a postage of two cents each, and these rates shall be prepaid by a stamp; the newspapers shall go free through the mails to actual subscribers in the county where published, but shall not be delivered at letter carrier offices or distributed by carriers unless postage be paid thereon; mail matter of the third class shall be charged at the rate of one cent for each two ounces. The amendment also authorizes the Postmaster General to require of publishers or news agents an affidavit that they will not send through the mails matter except to regular subscribers without prepayment of postage, and any refusal to make such affidavit shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 for each refusal. It also divides Postmasters into four classes, whose salaries shall be adjusted by the Postmaster General, with the exception of the Postmaster at New York city, whose salary is fixed at $6,000 per annum.

Mr. RAMSEY moved to amend the amendment by adding provisions of the House bill to prevent and punish straw bids. Agreed to.

Mr. CONKLING moved to amend so as to fix the salary of the Postmaster at New York city at $8,000 per annum. Agreed to.

The amendment as amended was then agreed to.

Mr. SHERMAN offered an amendment, for which Mr. Frelinghuysen offered a substitute, to dispense with the requirement for prepayment of postage on public documents authorized to be issued to Members of Congress, the President of the United States or heads of departments, and providing that postage on such documents shall not exceed twenty-five cents, to be paid by the person receiving the same.

After some discussion Sherman accepted the substitute.

The Senate at 5:30 went into executive session and after a short time adjourned.

HOUSE.

A bill was passed extending until July 4th, 1875, the time in which claims may be filed before the Southern Claims Commission, and providing for two additional Commissioners.

Mr. WILSON of Indiana, from the Joint Investigation Committee on the District of Columbia, made a report, which was ordered printed. He also reported a bill for government of the District of Columbia, and gave notice that he would call it up for action at 2 o'clock to-morrow.

The SPEAKER announced the appointment of Butler of Massachusetts, Frye of Maine and Potter of New York as a Conference Committee on the Geneva award bill.

Mr. TREMAIN of New York, from the Conference Committee on the Bankruptcy Bill, made a report and proceeded to explain it.

After discussion of a colloquial character the report was agreed to. As it was agreed to yesterday in the Senate the bill amending the bankruptcy law now goes to the President for his approval.

The House at 5 o'clock took a recess till 7:30.

EVENING SESSION.

Pension bills to the number of 115 were reported and passed.

Mr. RUSK, from the Committee on Invalid Pensions, reported a bill providing that all pensions on account of death wounds received or disease contracted in the service of the United States since the 4th of March, 1861, which have been granted or may hereafter be granted on an application filed previous to the 1st of January, 1875, shall commence from date of death or discharge, and that arrears of such pensions shall be paid.

Members at once began filibustering against the bill, and it was declared it would take $10,000,000 from the Treasury. Finally Rusk withdrew the bill and gave notice that he would to-morrow move to suspend the rules and pass it.

The checks proved worthless, and and now several of the victimized dealers are making a fruitless search around Newburgh for their patron, who has disappeared. It is supposed that he "gobbled" about $5,000.

The Daily Freeman

Kingston, Wednesday Morning, June 17.

Almost every town or city on earth is vain of some local peculiarty or other. Brooklyn is vain of Beecher; New York is vain of its aggregate population and of the Central Park, Boston of its ancient connection with the incipiency of the Revolution and of the big organ, and now the little city of Auburn has taken to bragging about the state prison, which as everybody knows, is located within its peaceful boundaries. It would seem at the first blush of it, that Auburn would scarcely feel complimented by the presence of so ghastly a monument built to human crime and weakness, but there is no accounting for tastes.

We hope the Tribune will not suppose that we use its name in this paragraph for the sake of inducing that paper to quote what we say about it, and of thus obtaining a little gratuitous back-action advertising for ourselves: for no such base and selfish motive animates our bosom in hereby recording our ready agreement with the journal founded by Horace Greeley, in its condemnation of the word "suicided." The newspapers in this age are purveyors (as the London pickle-makers say of their acidulous trade) to the President, the Queen, republicans and the yeomanry in general, of thought-vehicles—otherwise language. Editors and current writers are the responsible fathers and mothers of words, literatim et spellatim, and should be properly sober and conservative.

We expected it would come some time, but hardly that we should live to see it. Behold, however, ere the gray hairs of life's ultimate years have quite covered our intellectual poll, it is upon us. What? this. The hour when the managers of theological schools have conceded that all knowledge is one inseparable whole. It is proposed by certain daring Methodists of the great itinerary to make the sciences of medicine, the law and physiology prominent adjuncts to the customary course through which students for the ministry are required to pass. This is fortunate enough to meet our undiscounted approbation. Human and sermonic skeletons naturally tend to the same Golgotha and can best be studied together.

An editorial writer in the Herald is glad to think that Summer has come. He intimates his intention to take his vacation before long, and tells us that he longs "to steal out under the shady trees." We must confess our surprise that so thoroughly moral and law-abiding a journal should retain on its staff a man who thus openly confesses a larcenous disposition; but a long series of apologetic performances for knavery and rascality, done in the interest of a large circulation, will finally obfuscate and muddle the clearest conscience and most healthy morality. We trust the police, if sober, will keep a sharp eye on that fellow.

Speaking of Shirts.

Speaking of shirts, the eloquent fellow who occasionally writes up some new thing in the industrial line for the World (with a big W) is too much for us. He begins his last effort for his paper in the following overwhelming way: "When poor Tom Hood, lying on his bed of death, wrote the "Song of the Shirt," in that masculine garment he typified the whole domain of clothes. He who writes the new "Song of the Shirt" will write a pæan; that manly winding-sheet which Tam O'Shanter called a "cutty sark," even now signifies a flag of truce to pale cheeks and wasted frames, but the time will come when rosy-cheeked girls will rally around it as did the heretics around the white-plumed helmet of Henri of Navarre, and it will wave victoriously over the destruction and rout of consumption, headache, and pain in the back, foes which do mightily oppress, as did that famed feather over the prostrate enemies of the Bearnese."

We should like to praise the above noble strain as it deserves, but never had such a "realizing sense" of our incompetency to measure up to the requirements of so fine a tail (tale, we should say) as we feel at the present moment. A modest remark or two, however, we beg to make. If a shirt (Heaven forgive us for mentioning the horrid thing so often), if a shirt, we say, as Tom Hood wrote about it, typifies "the whole domain of clothes"—or the domain of whole clothes—why not dress symbolically; in the same way as the dying soldier always does when he wraps himself up in the national flag—the star-spangled banner? If this should be objected to by any stickler for old-fashioned conventionalities, we desire to have it understood that the responsibility for the natural inference we make from what the scholarly writer says, rests with him—not with us. If, furthermore, "that manly winding-sheet which Tam O'Shanter called a 'cutty sark,' means just a common two-dollar shirt and nothing more, as we suppose it does, what a brilliant imagination the author of the foregoing neatly-bottled extract must have, to call it "a flag of truce to pale cheeks and wasted frames." Now, if we are not gone clean mad at meeting with so wonderful an essay on manufactured muslin, a flag of truce is useless unless it is hoisted on something, so that it can conspicuously waved in air. How this could be done in the case suggested, without making the foolish to laugh and the reverent to grieve, we leave the author to tell. And then, the idea of "rosy-cheeked girls" rallying around a flag of truce which is supposed to be flourished by others with "pale cheeks and wasted frames"—well, it staggers us to think of. Besides, the idea of comparing a clean shirt (for it is to be a clean one of course, with bosom studs and all that) with the white-plumed helmet of Henri (with an i) of Navarre, beats Shakespeare, John Milton, John Hay and Mark Twain all cremated into one. And, great Jerusalem, just to think of the boldness of the metaphorical idea of fancying a shirt (one of Ward's best) waving victoriously over consumption * * * and pain in the back. Does he mean that pain in the back can be cured by a man's swinging a shirt over his head; what will happen if he puts the shirt on? Come now, you eloquent fellow, hold on! Don't write that "pæan" until the weather gets cool next fall; that is if you are going to write it yourself—and we are certain you can do it and make it wittier than Hood's Bridge of Sighs and funnier than Tennyson's "In Memoriam." The less you have to say, however, about the Bear-Knees the more modest people will think you.

Eccentrics.

Some gentle quill-driver, who resembles the youth mentioned in Gray's Elegy, inasmuch as he is "unknown to fortune and to fame,' tells a perspiring world that if it yearns to be present at the annual exercises at Rutger's College, it must roll off to New Brunswick without delay. He further informs us, with no attempt to conceal his delight, that after the D. D.s have been "manufactured" (his word—not a paraphrase of ours), the Trustees will give the Alumni a dinner. Of the excellence and abundance of that prospective banquet we do not feel free to speak. The fullness of New Jersey will doubtless figure at "the spread." It is a shade late for oysters and clams, perhaps, but vegetables of perfect succulence and soups appropriately seasoned will combine to make the hungry Alumni forget the limp and unsavory bivalves; and soup, like death in Mrs. Hemans' poem, has all seasons for its own. After the pre-eminent stomachs of the visiting mummies and of the new-born babes of Alma Mater cry, "Hold, enough," even under the protest of a sad regret that they cannot hold more, then the real fun of commencement commences. The plethoric and peaceful Pauline pugilists are to waddle ('twill be their best gait) to what our informant calls "a handsome Masonic theatre," to be tickled, stimulated and provoked to innocent laughter. The regular and professional humorists being for the most part absent in the Holy Land or too far removed by reason of the awful fees they asked for first class fun, the Alumni compassed the end and saved money by coaxing Rev. Mr. Talmage of Brooklyn to address them.

Having premised thus much, we will now sharpen our pencil and then proceed to make another point. Probably the better way will be to let the writer from Rutger's insert a sentence of his own in this precise spot. Here it is. Referring to Mr. Talmage's talk, he says:

"This is expected to be a great treat to our rural friends, who have only heard of the eccentric preacher afar off."

That word "eccentric" does it; indeed it does two things, both remarkable and unchangeable. First, in the judgment of the solid men who don't stick out in any direction, save at the epigastrium, the word "eccentric" relegates Mr. Talmage to the limbo where all other performers, such as acrobats, champion bare-back riders, fellows who chew hot charcoal, prima donnæ, magnetic and marvellous kings and queens of tragedy, and so on, forever abide, work and suffer. Second, it compels the coming of a crowd to hear and look at such a man, who, addle-heads as most of them are, indulge in a cosy, soothing sense of being somehow superior to the magician of the hour. Ah,—but what's the use? We had nearly expressed a wish for a benison from the kindly gods—a wish for power to cover the level-headed, unconscious, presumptuous, cotton-stuffed donkeys all over with the saliva of our boundless contempt—but, we are suffocated by the unanswerable question, Cui Bono—what's the use? Suppose we should try to explain that the world moves in an eccentric orbit because an ellipse is the most intricate and beautiful geometrical figure; suppose we should try to tell our "rural friends" in New Jersey and elsewhere that the greatest things which have ever been done in discovery, invention, science, literature and the fine arts, have been almost invariably the children of what the monotonous worshippers of the common-place style "eccentricity?" Pshaw! let the fraternity—not many of them—who don't conceive it to be the chief end of existence to be perpetually returning to a given point by equal arcs, take comfort. Let not Mr. Talmage worry. Fifty Doctrinal Dullards who will hear his speech at Rutger's would give six inches off their ears to be able to talk and teach as well, if it were not for a poltroon's dread of a fool's cheap epithet. When Dr. Robert Hall was remonstrated with for making the people laugh in church, he queried of the faultfinder: "Brother, can you imagine what you would have done if it had pleased God to have given you a grain of wit?"

—There is sound common sense in the remark of the Greeley, Col., Tribune, that "For a man who has succeeded in saving nothing in the east there are no inducements offered in Colorado." —It is noted by some papers, as if deserving of severe comment, that in the excursion of American pilgrims to Rome the jolliest fellows were the priests, who sang comic songs and kept the crowd in great humor. Whenever a child of either sex between the prescribed ages is seen upon the streets during school hours a policeman conducts it to the nearest police station, whence, after name, age, residence and names of parents have been recorded, it is sent to school. The Right and Left Eulogized.

PARIS, June 16.—The republican journals to-day speak in most eulogistic terms of the members of both the Right and Left Centres of the Assembly, because of their vote yesterday against restoration of a monarchy. They say the vote in the Assembly, though it does not proclaim a republic, shows that a monarchy is impossible.

Orleanist journals affect to consider the action of the Assembly leaves the situation unchanged; but express belief, nevertheless, that the consequence of the vote will be the consolidation of President MacMahon's powers.

PARIS, June 16.—In the Assembly to-day on reading of the journal of yesterday's proceedings loud complaints were made by members of the inaccuracy of the lists of yeas and nays. Gen. Cissey and three others said they had voted in favor of the motion for urgency on the Left Centre's bill.

A Deputy who voted against the motion declared that seven members of the Left, whose names were recorded in its favor, were not present when the vote was taken. He demanded rectification of the vote, which according to his statement ought to stand 339 affirmatives to 340 negatives.

M. de Francklin, of the extreme Right, formally moved that the vote in question be declared void.

M. Buffet, President of the Assembly, maintained the validity of the record.

The Right Centre presented a constituent resolution defining the powers of President MacMahon. It was referred to the Committee of Thirty.

Important Decision.

The result of the decision will be to draw several hundred thousand dollars from the treasury.

Cordelia being second. Time 2:12. For the third and principal race a purse of $700, one mile and three-quarters, five started: Sanford's Mate, Walden's Utica, McDaniels' Springbok, Littell's Fellowcraft and Belmont's Woodbine. Springbok was the favorite and though he kept towards the rear during the first mile, he won easily, Mate second, Fellowcraft third. Time 3:14½. For the fourth race, a hurdle race for $500, mile and three-quarters, three started: Hitchcock's Limestone, Walden's Aerolite and Ayer's Victor. The last-mentioned was the favorite. THE NATIONAL CAPITAL.

A Censorious Report.

WASHINGTON, June 16.—The select committee to inquire into the affairs of the District of Columbia have made their report. It makes thirty printed pages. They review the conduct of the District government generally, and say that, taking into consideration the expense involved in a comprehensive plan of improvements, the committee are of opinion that the Board of Public Works adopted an erroneous, and in its results a vicious method of letting contracts for this work, namely: without competition open to the public; and that the methods adopted by the Board resulted in the payment of an increased price over and above what would have been paid if open, fair and free competition had been invited. This system made easy another reprehensible feature of this business, viz: awarding contracts to persons who were not expected to perform them, but who were thereby enabled to sell them for a consideration to others to execute. The committee condemn the loose manner of doing business, saying that notwithstanding the most extensive operations were being carried on and expenditures made by the million there were no stated times for Board meetings, and but comparatively few Board meetings were in fact held; but entries were made on the records purporting to contain the proceedings of the Board, which were in fact made up by the Secretary from letters and papers that came to the office and from directions made by the Vice-President. Some of these entries were made of business transacted by the Vice-President at his private office and afterwards placed on the records as having been business transacted by the Board. The Board, during the three years it has been in existence, has done nothing in the way of verifying the accounts of these two officers. This is negligence not to be excused in those in whom such important trusts were confided. The committee say from the best information attainable the debt of the District in excess of the $10,000,000 limitation fixed by act of Congress, amounts in the aggregate to $3,747,858. This is an absolute debt after exhausting every available resource near or remote for its payment, unless a new tax for the purpose should be levied; but this is not the whole floating or unfunded liability resting upon the people of this District. The total obligations for which the Board of Public Works and the District are liable may be stated at $7,683,756; total burden, all things considered, $20,916,008. The committee are unable to see but one way in which the Board could have expected to pay this large debt, and that is by receiving aid from Congress, as it must have occurred to them that the resources of the District could not be taxed sufficiently to pay them, as was shown by one of the counsel for the District government.

THE NOBLE RED MAN.

General Custar Prepared to Swoop Down Upon Him.

ST. PAUL, MINN., June 16.—A telegram received at General Terry's headquarters to-day from General Custar at Fort Lincoln stating that a small party of Sioux appeared on the river bank opposite Fort Berthold agency the morning before at 7 o'clock and commenced firing into the village. Indians from the agency at once crossed the river and were met by about 400 Sioux. A short fight ensued in which five Rees and one Grosventre were killed and one Mandam mortally wounded. This is doubtless the party who have been threatening for some time the Berthold agency. The Indians at Fort Lincoln and a party of Arickarees and Mandams, who have just returned from the Indian Territory, are wild with excitement. The Indian scouts can scarcely wait for General Custar's movements, they are so eager for blood, scalps and revenge; but they will not have long to wait, as Custar's cavalry expedition is nearly ready to leave Fort Lincoln, final preparations having been completed by officers of the Seventh Cavalry now in this city. Gen. Custar expected to move next Sunday, but may start earlier in consequence of this news.

UNITED STATES CONGRESS.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, June 16.

The Senate then took up the post office appropriation bill. It was explained by West, who said the amount appropriated last year was $34,419,000, and this year the amount was $36,341,000, an increase of $1,922,000. This increase was due to the extension of the service throughout the country. While the increase of the service had been between 7 and 8 per cent. the increase in expenses had been but 5½ per cent. so the bill was in the line of economy. The bill was then read through and the amendments recommended by the Committee on Appropriations agreed to, with the exception of the first one requiring that postage shall hereafter be prepaid on all mailable matter at the time of mailing, and all acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed. The amendments agreed to were as follows: Limiting the free delivery system to cities of a population exceeding 30,000 person's, and striking out the clause inserted by the House providing that monthly and annual reports of the Department of Agriculture shall pass free through the mails.

Mr. ALLISON of Iowa, from the joint select committee to investigate the management of the government of the District of Columbia, made a report which he said was unanimous. He also reported a bill for the government of the District of Columbia as a substitute for the one reported a few days ago. Placed on the calendar.

Mr. SHERMAN moved an amendment to the post office appropriation bill that all newspaper and periodical publications mailed from the known office of publication or news agency addressed to regular subscribers or news agents shall be charged at the following rates: On newspapers and periodical publications four cents for each pound or fraction thereof, provided that the rate of postage on newspapers or periodicals not exceeding two ounces in weight, and circulars, when the same are deposited in the letter carrier office for delivery by the office or its carriers, shall be uniform at one cent each, but periodicals weighing more than two ounces shall be subject to a postage of two cents each, and these rates shall be prepaid by a stamp; the newspapers shall go free through the mails to actual subscribers in the county where published, but shall not be delivered at letter carrier offices or distributed by carriers unless postage be paid thereon; mail matter of the third class shall be charged at the rate of one cent for each two ounces. The amendment also authorizes the Postmaster General to require of publishers or news agents an affidavit that they will not send through the mails matter except to regular subscribers without prepayment of postage, and any refusal to make such affidavit shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 for each refusal. It also divides Postmasters into four classes, whose salaries shall be adjusted by the Postmaster General, with the exception of the Postmaster at New York city, whose salary is fixed at $6,000 per annum.

Mr. RAMSEY moved to amend the amendment by adding provisions of the House bill to prevent and punish straw bids. Agreed to.

Mr. CONKLING moved to amend so as to fix the salary of the Postmaster at New York city at $8,000 per annum. Agreed to.

The amendment as amended was then agreed to.

Mr. SHERMAN offered an amendment, for which Mr. Frelinghuysen offered a substitute, to dispense with the requirement for prepayment of postage on public documents authorized to be issued to Members of Congress, the President of the United States or heads of departments, and providing that postage on such documents shall not exceed twenty-five cents, to be paid by the person receiving the same.

After some discussion Sherman accepted the substitute.

The Senate at 5:30 went into executive session and after a short time adjourned.

HOUSE.

A bill was passed extending until July 4th, 1875, the time in which claims may be filed before the Southern Claims Commission, and providing for two additional Commissioners.

Mr. WILSON of Indiana, from the Joint Investigation Committee on the District of Columbia, made a report, which was ordered printed. He also reported a bill for government of the District of Columbia, and gave notice that he would call it up for action at 2 o'clock to-morrow.

The SPEAKER announced the appointment of Butler of Massachusetts, Frye of Maine and Potter of New York as a Conference Committee on the Geneva award bill.

Mr. TREMAIN of New York, from the Conference Committee on the Bankruptcy Bill, made a report and proceeded to explain it.

After discussion of a colloquial character the report was agreed to. As it was agreed to yesterday in the Senate the bill amending the bankruptcy law now goes to the President for his approval.

The House at 5 o'clock took a recess till 7:30.

EVENING SESSION.

Pension bills to the number of 115 were reported and passed.

Mr. RUSK, from the Committee on Invalid Pensions, reported a bill providing that all pensions on account of death wounds received or disease contracted in the service of the United States since the 4th of March, 1861, which have been granted or may hereafter be granted on an application filed previous to the 1st of January, 1875, shall commence from date of death or discharge, and that arrears of such pensions shall be paid.

Members at once began filibustering against the bill, and it was declared it would take $10,000,000 from the Treasury. Finally Rusk withdrew the bill and gave notice that he would to-morrow move to suspend the rules and pass it.

—The Troy Whig has discovered a man in that city, 72 years old, who gathers rags for a living, and says he is a nephew of Daniel Webster, and is thought to be worth $10,000.

—At the late dedication of the new M. E. Church at Kingston, Luzerne county, Pa., $32,000 were raised by subscription during the morning service. This was increased to $35,000 in the evening.

—The Newburgh Turn Verein, assisted by the New York Turners and Cadets, the Williamsburgh Turners and Cadets, societies from Poughkeepsie, Rondout, Troy and Albany, the Newburgh Mannerchor and the Kranken Verein will hold their first picnic of the season, which will be a repetition of last year's festival, on Monday, June 15th, at Carpenter's Woods.

—A volume, "In Memory of Rufus W. Peckham, a Judge of the Court of Appeals," has been prepared by a Committee of the Bar of the State of New York, and issued in chaste style from the press of Joel Munsell. It contains, complete, the proceedings of the several courts of the state, commemorating the character and abilities of the esteemed jurist.

—A sorrel mare about 22 years old was disposed of, two years ago, by R. H. Denny of North Highlands, Putnam Co., N. Y., to Mr. Cargill, who sold her to parties in Dutchess county. On Saturday morning the animal made her appearance at Mr. Denny's barn, at break of day, and took her former quarters in the stable. Of course "Scofield" could not refuse to give the poor creature a bite of provender in the old manger, although he had no idea who is the owner of the mare, nor whence she came on that dark night.

—Newburgh, which seems to be a sort of paradise for swindlers, has discovered another in her midst, named L. L. Luddington, who last March established an office and proposed to deal in lumber, shingles, sash, blinds, etc. He bought in a large quantity of goods from manufacturers in different parts of the country, returning his checks in payment, and disposing of the goods immediately upon their receipt. The checks proved worthless, and and now several of the victimized dealers are making a fruitless search around Newburgh for their patron, who has disappeared. It is supposed that he "gobbled" about $5,000.

PASSED May 11, 1874; three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Every person who shall knowingly circulate false intelligence with the intent of depreciating or advancing the market price of the public funds of the United States, or of any state or territory thereof, or of any foreign country or government, or the stocks, bonds or evidence of debt of any corporation, or association or the market price of any merchandise or commodity whatever, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished, upon conviction thereof, by a fine of not exceeding five thousand dollars, and imprisonment for a period not exceeding three years or either.

§ 2. Every person who shall forge the name of any person or of the officer of any corporation to any letter, message or paper whatever, with intent to advance or depreciate the market price of the public funds of the United States, or of any state or territory thereof, or of any foreign country or government, or the market price of any bonds or stock or other evidence of debt issued by any corporation or association, or the market price of gold or silver coin or bullion, or of any merchandise or commodity whatever, shall, upon conviction, be adjudged guilty of forgery in the third degree, and shall be punished by imprisonment in a state prison for a term not exceeding five years.

CHAP. 322.

AN ACT to amend chapter three hundred and seventy-nine of the laws of eighteen hundred and forty-eight, entitled "An act to simplify and abridge the practice, pleadings and proceedings of the courts of this state," passed April twelfth, eighteen hundred and forty-eight.

PASSED May 2, 1874.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section eleven of chapter three hundred and seventy-nine of the laws of eighteen hundred and forty-eight, entitled An act to simplify and abridge the practice, pleadings and proceedings of the courts of this state, passed April twelfth, eighteen hundred and forty-eight as the same has been since then amended, is hereby further amended by adding at the end thereof the following:

No appeal shall be hereafter taken to the Court of Appeals from any judgment or order, granting or refusing a new trial, where the amount of the judgment or subject matter in the action or proceeding does not exceed five hundred dollars, exclusive of the costs therein, unless the general term of the court from whose decision or determination such appeal shall be taken, shall, by an order to be entered in its minutes, state that there is involved some question of law which ought to be reviewed in the Court of Appeals. In actions not founded upon contract, where the judgment appealed from is for the defendant, the amount claimed in the complaint shall be deemed the amount of the subject matter of the controversy. But nothing in this provision contained shall apply to actions or proceedings affecting the title to real estate, or an interest therein.

STATE OF NEW YORK, Office of the Secretary of State, } ss.:

I have compared the preceding with the original law on file in this office, and do hereby certify that the same is a correct transcript therefrom and of the whole of said original law.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

CITY NOTES.

—Justice Malloy's office was crammed yesterday. Bastardy case, of course.

—Hasbrouck Avenue is getting to be very rich in red roses.

—Our home strawberry raisers are now up to their ears in profits.

—Tubby's men are at work decorating the walls of the Wurts street Baptist church.

—Ripe cherries have made their appearance in our markets.

—On Tuesday 68 canal boats laden with 8,440 tons of coal reached tide water through the Delaware and Hudson canal.

—There is a house on Adams street that from its frequent additions reminds us of the stories in the New York Ledger—"to be continued."

—The balcony on Mr. John Weber's building, corner of Union avenue and Abeel street, is an improvement on the wooden awning lately removed.

—A very handsome phaeton passed through Mill street on Tuesday. It was purchased of J. M. Mayer by George Schieck, and will be a very acceptable present to Mrs. Schieck.

—The First German Lutheran Society are to give a fair for the benefit of the new church building fund, in Washington Hall on the evenings of July 1st, 2d and 3d.

—The war on goats has been a good thing—a person can walk a block on Union avenue now without the fear of ascertaining which the butt end of a goat is.

—People who keep chickens and have neighbors who have a garden should keep the chickens in a coop or yard, else the neighbor may have chicken pot pie "without money and without price."

—Van Deusen Brothers on Tuesday received a fine safe. It was manufactured by Mosler, Bahmann & Co., of Cincinnati, Ohio, and weighs about 3,500 pounds. It is warranted fire and burglar proof.

—Wm. F. Romer is making some extensive improvements to his house on Fair street. A large bay window is being put in the second story, while Wyly H. Warner's steam heating apparatus is being placed in the house. The house is to be heated with steam throughout.

—The power of fashion is wonderful. Here just because one little shaver marked up his sidewalk for hop-scotch, every little youngster in the city is now armed with a piece of chalk, and there is not a sidewalk from Ponckhockie to Wilbur free from the hieroglyphic embellishments, and a stranger is apt to think our younger inhabitants intensely afflicted with hop-toadyism.

Suit for Damages.

The Troy Times says the Citizens' Line of steamers will bring suit against the Bridge Company in the United States Court for damages by the Sunnyside collision. The steamboat company claim that the state has no right to grant a charter to any corporation to bridge navigable waters.

Shawangunk Paper Mill.

Israel D. Condit & Son are about to rebuild the Shawangunk paper mill, destroyed by a boiler explosion not long since. The new building will be 150 feet square. S. H. Tower of Newburgh has been awarded the contract for the carpenter work, and Edward A. Howell of the same city the contract for the mason work.

Nearly a Serious Accident.

While one of the drivers of Isaac Roosa's livery stable was taking the family of Tjerick Ingraham out riding with a team on Monday evening, they came down Fair street, and the team becoming frightened at No. 3 steamer, that was working in front of Fireman's Hall, they started to run away. The driver, in attempting to hold them, broke one of the reins, and the women jumped out pell-mell on the sidewalk, while the team ran on the opposite side of the street and were stopped. It is no place to work an engine on a street where vehicles are passing every moment, for there are but few horses that will bear the noise and smoke, and the danger is all the greater because the walks are crowded with pedestrians. The practice should be stopped.

Personal.

Presiding Elder Bates is in town, to marry a couple.

Mr. Le Grand Abbey of this city was married in Unadilla on Monday evening last, by the Rev. Mr. Seoville, to Miss Ida Goodrich. Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Abbey, the parents of the groom, were present at the ceremony, arriving home on Tuesday noon. The newly-wedded pair have gone east on a bridal tour, and while on that journey as well as on the entire journey of life, which we trust will be a long one, they have the heartiest wishes of The Freeman force for their happiness.—"Grand" was one of the original attaches of The Freeman, and we all take a fatherly interest in the boy. The bride is a daughter of the Rev. Mr. Goodrich, who was mysteriously lost during the great Chicago fire. Mr. Goodrich was passing through Chicago when the fire occurred, from some mines he owned in Nevada, and whence he had been to settle his affairs previous to retiring with a fortune. He was stopping at a hotel in the ill-fated city and was known to have a very large amount of money, probably $200,000, in his possession; but what was his fate and that of the funds will, in all probability, remain one of the mysteries of that great conflagration.

Partition Sale.

The farm formerly occupied by Robert A. Kerr, situated near Marlborough, consisting of 1?0 acres of fine land, was sold at partition sale at the Court House on Saturday by A Schoonmaker, Jr., referee, to Charles Kerr of this city for $20,200. This estate was formerly owned by Elisha Purdy, now deceased, who leased it to Robert Kerr in 1859, for a term of five years, with the right of Kerr to purchase the property at the end of that time for $10,000. Kerr claimed to have bought the property at the end of the five years, and the parties got into a suit over the matter, which has been running in the different courts of this state for some six or seven years, being finally decided against Kerr. In the meantime Kerr, or his wife Nancy, bought out two of the heirs, thus becoming the owner of two-fifths of the estate. A partition suit was then commenced by Ann Maria Conkling, one of the heirs, and a sale had, as before stated, on Saturday.

Wm. Lounsbery appeared for the plaintiff, F. L. Westbrook for Kerr, and Wm. S. Kenyon for Charles H. Clearwater, the mortgagee of Kerr's interest. John W. Kerr also has an interest in the property, as he holds a deed in trust for Kerr's interest. The property is a valuable one in being well adapted for the raising of vegetables and strawberries.

—Troy's new bridge still continues fruitful of accidents. The canal boat Alice, loaded with lime, was wrecked against one of the piers on Friday.

COUNTY COURT AND COURT OF SESSIONS.

Judge William Lawton, Presiding.

On Tuesday morning the case of The People vs. Michael Lawless was again moved, and the objection again made that counsel F. L. Westbrook was unavoidably detained at home. After some argument, however, the case was put down for trial at 2 P. M.

Charles Traver was then brought up for sentence. He said he had nothing to say except that he had been wrongly convicted. He said he had been confined once in the Albany penitentiary on a charge of burglary. He was sentenced to be imprisoned in the Clinton state prison for the period of ten years. This prisoner has the disease of consumption, that will probably carry him to his grave before his term expires, and it was for this reason the Judge gave him the shortest sentence allowed by the law.

No further business being before the court it was adjourned until 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

One of the jurymen while out in the Traver case Monday night sent a note to Judge Lawton requesting him to take care of his brown team that had been left under Sol. Brown's shed. We might state that the note was probably intended for the Constable.

In the afternoon the case of Lawless was moved, when a jury after a time was impanneled and the case proceeded. In this case the prisoner is indicted for having committed burglary on the 7th of September, 1873; entering the house of Dorothy Deker, by bursting in the door, assaulting and beating her and attempting to rob her. A confederate was with him. The attorneys in the case are the District Attorney, Charles A. Fowler and Peter Cantine for the prosecution, and A. J. Mellon for the defence.

The first witness called was DOROTHY DEKER. As this witness is a German woman, John L. Butzel was assigned by the Court as interpreter. She testified as follows: Have lived in Saugerties fourteen years; know Michael Lawless, the prisoner at the bar; knew him before he got married; it may be eight or nine years, or longer; know John Taylor of Saugerties; he is my cousin; he is Mike Lawless' brother-in-law; I was alone at home on a Sunday evening last fall; cannot say exactly what month it was; there was no lock on the door, but there was a knob on the inside to fasten it with; it was fastened that night; the door was broken in with the feet, and the knob was split in two; after they came into the house one of them had a large stick in his hand; one of them was Mike Lawless and the other was an old man who used to be with Taylor; when Mike came in he said, "Do you want money? I'll give you money; I am the devil." I said, "I don't want to know the devil." Then he threw me on the bed and jumped on me and held me. He then said to the other man, "Don't stand idle, but go and look for something." The other man threw down his stick and opened boxes, and hunted around the house; the old man said afterwards, "Let her go; I can find no money." Then they went off and left nothing except a big stick; I was wounded and bruised, and much hurt; it was Mike who said he was the devil; I had money with me that night, $17.25 and some shillings in my petticoat pocket; I received money the day before from Thomas Lawless, brother of Michael Lawless; Taylor paid the money for him; he bought the grass on my place; I went to Thomas, and then to Taylor's to get the money; when we got to Taylor's there was not enough money yet; I received $45 there.

Cross-Examined—I don't know Jesse Bookstaver of Saugerties, but have heard of him; I never told Bookstaver that Lawless was not the man; I never said to Mr. and Mrs. Taylor that Mike Lawless was not one of the men; I was afraid of my life; I know Mrs. Eckert; often got things there; I have not told her Mike Lawless is not the man; don't know Annie Kenny; know her by sight, not by name; told her that Ennist and Vandemark were at my house, but that was in the spring; the women said I ought to have told before of it; am acquainted with Peter Whittaker; he did not make me a present of a dress; his wife bought me a dress for my work; I got the dress a few weeks ago; did not tell Mrs. Eckert I got that dress for swearing it was Lawless; I know William F. Russell; am well acquainted with him; I did not say to John Taylor that Russell would give me a large amount of money if I would swear it was Mike Lawless; John Taylor told me his boy got money, and he asked if I hadn't got some; I know Elizabeth Sherman. When asked the question whether witness told Elizabeth Sherman a dress had been given her to swear it was Mike Lawless, she became very indignant and said "It was a lie." A number of other questions were asked the witness similar to those answered.

Witness—I did not make the complaint very long ago; think it was last May or April; I was alone when I came. A Constable summoned me.

Re-direct—I had a light in the house that night; it was an oil lamp; it was 12 o'clock at night; before this I saw Vandemark and Ennist come from my house, and a number of things were missing when I came home; that was the reason I spoke of them; after Lawless and the other man had been to my house I crept and partly walked to a neighbor's house; I was confined to the house ten weeks from the injuries received; it was sometime afterwards I told it was Lawless; I was afraid; I told Myer Brink.

The witness further said she had been robbed three times, and the last time she got whipped; that Mrs. Eckert told her she must say it was Vandemark and not Mike.

CHARLOTTE BRINK sworn—Am wife of Myer Brink; have known Dorothy Deker 14 or 15 years; I remember seeing her last fall hurt; her whole face was beaten black and blue; her eyes were swollen; this was Monday morning; she said she had been hurt the night before.

An offer was made to show that the complainant accused Lawless of being the man immediately after she was hurt, but it was not allowed by the Court.

ADAM LASHER sworn—I saw complainant in the bed room at Mrs. Mowes' house; it was the time she got her hay money; she was badly bruised and injured.

Cross-Examined—Her husband was my grandfather.

The defence called THOMAS LAWLESS—Am brother of Michael Lawless; remember the Sunday evening; was home all the afternoon; saw him until dusk; he wanted my team to go out in the country a few miles with a friend from New York; after taking me across the bridge he and the man went off with it; don't know that I saw him after that.

EDWARD HALEY testified—Michael Lawless and one Kane came to my house one night last September; that is as near as I can get at it. They remained then about half an hour; I went along to Saugerties.

THOMAS ROURKE testified—I was with Mike Lawless one Sunday evening; had hurt my eye, and it pained me badly; got kind o' tight and went out to see a girl that night; when I came home, after 10 o'clock, I felt thirsty and went into the place of Lawless; Mike Lawless was there. He further testified that after this he went with Lawless to put out the team, and was with him after 11 o'clock.

On the cross-examination he could not tell when it was; said that he slept with Lawless that night; did not see prisoner's wife; think she was home; Lawless had a bed off the bar-room; went to bed at nearly 12 o'clock; certain I heard the clock strike ten when I was with my girl; have known Lawless ever since I was a little boy.

Mary Eckert and Eliza Sherman testified that complainant had said it was not Mike Lawless who had been in her house, but that Vandemark and Ennist were the men; that he further said the big bugs of Saugerties, one Russell, one Freligh and one Butzel, had offered her nephew $50 to come and swear it was Mike Lawless who committed the crime; complainant further said she did not get the money but got a new dress.

The Grand Jury came into court with a batch of indictments and were discharged.

Court then adjourned until Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock.

A Complaint from Ponckhockie.

We have received a touching epistle from a denizen of that romantic region, Ponckhockie, which, after making some corrections of its original vagueness of expression and eccentricities of grammar and orthography, we make out as follows: "The daily occurrence of fights between women in Ponckhockie has become a great nuisance. It is high time something was done. There are at least from four to five grand arguments every day, which very often result in one or more of the combatants getting knocked down, much to the discouragement of the defeated party. The language used is of the most profane kind, much to be regretted, as there are so many children (for which Ponckhockie is noted) living in the vicinity where the disgraceful scenes occur. At least eight women living in the same vicinity take turns to make things more lively. Mrs. Brady has been for a long time queen of the walk, which aroused the feelings of one Mrs. Doran, who proceeded with a club to uncrown the indignant queen, and did it with such credit that the neighbors promise, if the successful Doran will keep quiet until the 9th day of January, 1899, they will present her with a patent tongue bridle."

Other complaints have been made to us about the same matter, and in full sympathy with the sufferers. We join in expressing a sentiment felt in every Ponckhockie breast. "Mrs. Brady, et al. give us a rest."

SAUGERTIES.

—A number of our German citizens were seen going home last Saturday with baskets of rations on their arms and kegs of lager on their shoulders.

—Our German reporter is engaged night and day in translating the speeches made by the orators at the great mass meeting last Sunday. Look out for it; biggest thing out.

—The ladies of the M. E. Church will give a strawberry and ice-cream festival on the evenings of June 17th and 18th.

—Capt. Lorenzo Shafler was in town yesterday. He is running on a steamboat between Newburgh and New York at present. He is looking tip-top and sports a nobby blue necktie.

—Charley Van Deusen put up a very handsome Ottawa beer fountain in his place Tuesday. "Dr. Chip" says it looks for all the world like the infernal machine Van Hosen intended to blow up the rebel ram Merrimac with.

—The boys can go a bathing now in the upper creek without fear of that alligator, as our friend Johnny Hardenbergh has induced him to come forth and live in his acquarium with two friendly inclined eels, by the offer of plenty of good pork and beans to eat and a little good whiskey on Sundays. As the excise law is only for hogs and not alligators, Johnny lets him have it.

—A horse, starting from somewhere near Battell's on the hill, ran away with a very nobby Wheeler & Wilson wagon, supposed to belong in Kingston. Running down the long hill approaching the bridge at a furious pace he took the left-hand passage at the bridge and fortunately no wagons were coming through at the time. Passing through without touching a thing he brought up behind the old brick store against a tree, splitting every spoke in one of the forward wheels, but otherwise not a thing was broken, which is nothing less than miraculous, considering the route he had come. After getting the horse away from the tree two young "sports" came running up out of breath and claimed the establishment. Getting in they lashed the poor horse into a run, and away they went up Lorrillard's hill at a break-neck pace, everybody wishing that the horse would throw them out.

COUNTY.

—Wawarsing now wants $50 for licenses.

—Napanoch is full of applicants for the vacant position of Collector.

—Marlborough expects a good crop of berries this season.

—Two licenses have been granted in Plattekill.

—The annual meeting of the M. E. District Stewards for the Ellenville District will be held in Ellenville Wednesday.

—Why are not finger-posts put up at the crossings on the country roads? Nothing would help travelers more than this.

—Bill Bruyn from Illinois is visiting in Rosendale. He is a member of the Granger Association in the west, and carries the seal of his office with him in his vest pocket.

—Simon P. Keator of Rosendale has started a new grocery store in that place, while Peter Low has a new bakery in full running order, with an ice cream saloon and soda water fountain attached. Rosendale is certainly improving.

—Some of Cornell Winne's boarders of last summer have found other quarters for the coming season. They say they left Winne's because he sold rum, and now Cornell swears furiously at the rum, and says it has done him more injury than good.

—The apple trees in the town of Olive are being eaten up by the apple worm. So great a pest is this vermin that they swarm in the trees and meadows by the thousand. They crawl up the sides of the houses, through the open windows into the houses, and even find their way into the cellars, to the great detriment of cold victuals. The apple crop this year will undoubtedly be much smaller than usual on this account.

TRAGEDY AT ROXBURY.

Suicide of an Aged German.

ROXBURY, June 16.

This morning about ten o'clock Christian Kaltenbach, an unmarried German aged 63, committed suicide by hanging himself in his brother's barn. He was never of a high order of intellect and for the past two years has been in poor health. It is supposed that he put himself out of the way because a niece of his was about to be married. He was very much attached to her. A few days since in speaking of her he said that as she was going away he would go too. When found he was dead. Drs. Keator and Dart endeavored to resuscitate him, but in vain. It was his favorite niece who first found him hanging.

Old Paper-Makers.

SAUGERTIES, N. Y., May 18, 1874.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE PAPER TRADE JOURNAL:—Though our information comes somewhat late, still we feel that we have in our mill some good examples of the healthfulness of paper-making. The two engineers that have now charge of that department came here with Henry Barclay in 1826 to start a hand mill, but before the mill was finished the Fourdrinier machine came into use, and Jas. McDonald started the first engine, and has run one of them ever since. He has worked at paper-making 55 years and is now 69 years old and as active as any of his helpers.

Benjamin Yeoman has been in the business over 50 years, and we think he can take the prize among healthy paper-makers; his present weight is 380 lbs., his age 61 years, and he has been absent from the mill but very seldom in years past.

Our two machine tenders have worked here since they were boys; George Pollock, aged 57 years, has worked here 42 years, and Edward Miner, aged 54 years, has worked here 35 years.

Richard Martin is also an old paper-maker, 49 years at the business, 23 years in this mill and 68 years of age.

William Dean, Assistant Superintendent, has worked here 28 years, age 42 years.

We have engineer helpers that have worked here from 20 to 25 years, and hardly any one of our men has been with us less than ten years, and from that to 20 years.

We have a woman in the rag room that has sorted rags for over 25 years, and several that have sorted and cut rags from 15 to 20 years. This is our mite to your list.

Yours respectfully,
J. B. SHEFFIELD & SON.

An Important Invention.

W. J. Budington, formerly of this city, has succeeded in making artificial Portland cement, equal if not superior to the White Bros.' of London, England. This cement is a double silicate of lime and of alumina and possesses in an eminent degree the well-known property of hydraulicity, or capacity to set under water. It will bear after the lapse of the same period a tensile strain twice as great as the best hydraulic cement, and is not affected in the least by atmospheric changes. Frost has no injurious effect upon it. Mr. Budington is now with the Wallkill Lime and Cement Co., Hamburgh, New Jersey, at which place he succeeded in making the cement, and the company intend erecting works for its manufacture.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

CITY NOTES.

—Justice Malloy's office was crammed yesterday. Bastardy case, of course.

—Hasbrouck Avenue is getting to be very rich in red roses.

—Our home strawberry raisers are now up to their ears in profits.

—Tubby's men are at work decorating the walls of the Wurts street Baptist church.

—Ripe cherries have made their appearance in our markets.

—On Tuesday 68 canal boats laden with 8,440 tons of coal reached tide water through the Delaware and Hudson canal.

—There is a house on Adams street that from its frequent additions reminds us of the stories in the New York Ledger—"to be continued."

—The balcony on Mr. John Weber's building, corner of Union avenue and Abeel street, is an improvement on the wooden awning lately removed.

—A very handsome phaeton passed through Mill street on Tuesday. It was purchased of J. M. Mayer by George Schieck, and will be a very acceptable present to Mrs. Schieck.

—The First German Lutheran Society are to give a fair for the benefit of the new church building fund, in Washington Hall on the evenings of July 1st, 2d and 3d.

—The war on goats has been a good thing—a person can walk a block on Union avenue now without the fear of ascertaining which the butt end of a goat is.

—People who keep chickens and have neighbors who have a garden should keep the chickens in a coop or yard, else the neighbor may have chicken pot pie "without money and without price."

—Van Deusen Brothers on Tuesday received a fine safe. It was manufactured by Mosler, Bahmann & Co., of Cincinnati, Ohio, and weighs about 3,500 pounds. It is warranted fire and burglar proof.

—Wm. F. Romer is making some extensive improvements to his house on Fair street. A large bay window is being put in the second story, while Wylly H. Warner's steam heating apparatus is being placed in the house. The house is to be heated with steam throughout.

—The power of fashion is wonderful. Here just because one little shaver marked up his sidewalk for hop-scotch, every little youngster in the city is now armed with a piece of chalk, and there is not a sidewalk from Ponckhockie to Wilbur free from the hieroglyphic embellishments, and a stranger is apt to think our younger inhabitants intensely afflicted with hop-toadyism.

Suit for Damages.

The Troy Times says the Citizens' Line of steamers will bring suit against the Bridge Company in the United States Court for damages by the Sunnyside collision. The steamboat company claim that the state has no right to grant a charter to any corporation to bridge navigable waters.

Shawangunk Paper Mill.

Israel D. Condit & Son are about to rebuild the Shawangunk paper mill, destroyed by a boiler explosion not long since. The new building will be 150 feet square. S. H. Tower of Newburgh has been awarded the contract for the carpenter work, and Edward A. Howell of the same city the contract for the mason work.

Nearly a Serious Accident.

While one of the drivers of Isaac Roosa's livery stable was taking the family of Tjerick Ingraham out riding with a team on Monday evening, they came down Fair street, and the team becoming frightened at No. 3 steamer, that was working in front of Fireman's Hall, they started to run away. The driver, in attempting to hold them, broke one of the reins, and the women jumped out pell-mell on the sidewalk, while the team ran on the opposite side of the street and were stopped. It is no place to work an engine on a street where vehicles are passing every moment, for there are but few horses that will bear the noise and smoke, and the danger is all the greater because the walks are crowded with pedestrians. The practice should be stopped.

Personal.

Presiding Elder Bates is in town, to marry a couple.

Mr. Le Grand Abbey of this city was married in Unadilla on Monday evening last, by the Rev. Mr. Seoville, to Miss Ida Goodrich. Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Abbey, the parents of the groom, were present at the ceremony, arriving home on Tuesday noon. The newly-wedded pair have gone east on a bridal tour, and while on that journey as well as on the entire journey of life, which we trust will be a long one, they have the heartiest wishes of The Freeman force for their happiness.—"Grand" was one of the original attaches of The Freeman, and we all take a fatherly interest in the boy. The bride is a daughter of the Rev. Mr. Goodrich, who was mysteriously lost during the great Chicago fire. Mr. Goodrich was passing through Chicago when the fire occurred, from some mines he owned in Nevada, and whence he had been to settle his affairs previous to retiring with a fortune. He was stopping at a hotel in the ill-fated city and was known to have a very large amount of money, probably $200,000, in his possession; but what was his fate and that of the funds will, in all probability, remain one of the mysteries of that great conflagration.

Partition Sale.

The farm formerly occupied by Robert A. Kerr, situated near Marlborough, consisting of 1[illegible]0 acres of fine land, was sold at partition sale at the Court House on Saturday by A Schoonmaker, Jr., referee, to Charles Kerr of this city for $20,200. This estate was formerly owned by Elisha Purdy, now deceased, who leased it to Robert Kerr in 1859, for a term of five years, with the right of Kerr to purchase the property at the end of that time for $10,000. Kerr claimed to have bought the property at the end of the five years, and the parties got into a suit over the matter, which has been running in the different courts of this state for some six or seven years, being finally decided against Kerr. In the meantime Kerr, or his wife Nancy, bought out two of the heirs, thus becoming the owner of two-fifths of the estate. A partition suit was then commenced by Ann Maria Conkling, one of the heirs, and a sale had, as before stated, on Saturday.

Wm. Lounsbery appeared for the plaintiff, F. L. Westbrook for Kerr, and Wm. S. Kenyon for Charles H. Clearwater, the mortgagee of Kerr's interest. John W. Kerr also has an interest in the property, as he holds a deed in trust for Kerr's interest. The property is a valuable one in being well adapted for the raising of vegetables and strawberries.

—Troy's new bridge still continues fruitful of accidents. The canal boat Alice, loaded with lime, was wrecked against one of the piers on Friday.

COUNTY COURT AND COURT OF SESSIONS.

Judge William Lawton, Presiding.

On Tuesday morning the case of The People vs. Michael Lawless was again moved, and the objection again made that counsel F. L. Westbrook was unavoidably detained at home. After some argument, however, the case was put down for trial at 2 P. M.

Charles Traver was then brought up for sentence. He said he had nothing to say except that he had been wrongly convicted. He said he had been confined once in the Albany penitentiary on a charge of burglary. He was sentenced to be imprisoned in the Clinton state prison for the period of ten years. This prisoner has the disease of consumption, that will probably carry him to his grave before his term expires, and it was for this reason the Judge gave him the shortest sentence allowed by the law.

No further business being before the court it was adjourned until 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

One of the jurymen while out in the Traver case Monday night sent a note to Judge Lawton requesting him to take care of his brown team that had been left under Sol. Brown's shed. We might state that the note was probably intended for the Constable.

In the afternoon the case of Lawless was moved, when a jury after a time was impanneled and the case proceeded. In this case the prisoner is indicted for having committed burglary on the 7th of September, 1873; entering the house of Dorothy Deker, by bursting in the door, assaulting and beating her and attempting to rob her. A confederate was with him. The attorneys in the case are the District Attorney, Charles A. Fowler and Peter Cantine for the prosecution, and A. J. Mellon for the defence.

The first witness called was DOROTHY DEKER. As this witness is a German woman, John L. Butzel was assigned by the Court as interpreter. She testified as follows: Have lived in Saugerties fourteen years; know Michael Lawless, the prisoner at the bar; knew him before he got married; it may be eight or nine years, or longer; know John Taylor of Saugerties; he is my cousin; he is Mike Lawless' brother-in-law; I was alone at home on a Sunday evening last fall; cannot say exactly what month it was; there was no lock on the door, but there was a knob on the inside to fasten it with; it was fastened that night; the door was broken in with the feet, and the knob was split in two; after they came into the house one of them had a large stick in his hand; one of them was Mike Lawless and the other was an old man who used to be with Taylor; when Mike came in he said, "Do you want money? I'll give you money; I am the devil." I said, "I don't want to know the devil." Then he threw me on the bed and jumped on me and held me. He then said to the other man, "Don't stand idle, but go and look for something." The other man threw down his stick and opened boxes, and hunted around the house; the old man said afterwards, "Let her go; I can find no money." Then they went off and left nothing except a big stick; I was wounded and bruised, and much hurt; it was Mike who said he was the devil; I had money with me that night, $17.25 and some shillings in my petticoat pocket; I received money the day before from Thomas Lawless, brother of Michael Lawless; Taylor paid the money for him; he bought the grass on my place; I went to Thomas, and then to Taylor's to get the money; when we got to Taylor's there was not enough money yet; I received $45 there.

Cross-Examined—I don't know Jesse Bookstaver of Saugerties, but have heard of him; I never told Bookstaver that Lawless was not the man; I never said to Mr. and Mrs. Taylor that Mike Lawless was not one of the men; I was afraid of my life; I know Mrs. Eckert; often got things there; I have not told her Mike Lawless is not the man; don't know Annie Kenny; know her by sight, not by name; told her that Ennist and Vandemark were at my house, but that was in the spring; the women said I ought to have told before of it; am acquainted with Peter Whittaker; he did not make me a present of a dress; his wife bought me a dress for my work; I got the dress a few weeks ago; did not tell Mrs. Eckert I got that dress for swearing it was Lawless; I know William F. Russell; am well acquainted with him; I did not say to John Taylor that Russell would give me a large amount of money if I would swear it was Mike Lawless; John Taylor told me his boy got money, and he asked if I hadn't got some; I know Elizabeth Sherman. When asked the question whether witness told Elizabeth Sherman a dress had been given her to swear it was Mike Lawless, she became very indignant and said "It was a lie." A number of other questions were asked the witness similar to those answered.

Witness—I did not make the complaint very long ago; think it was last May or April; I was alone when I came. A Constable summoned me.

Re-direct—I had a light in the house that night; it was an oil lamp; it was 12 o'clock at night; before this I saw Vandemark and Ennist come from my house, and a number of things were missing when I came home; that was the reason I spoke of them; after Lawless and the other man had been to my house I crept and partly walked to a neighbor's house; I was confined to the house ten weeks from the injuries received; it was sometime afterwards I told it was Lawless; I was afraid; I told Myer Brink.

The witness further said she had been robbed three times, and the last time she got whipped; that Mrs. Eckert told her she must say it was Vandemark and not Mike.

CHARLOTTE BRINK sworn—Am wife of Myer Brink; have known Dorothy Deker 14 or 15 years; I remember seeing her last fall hurt; her whole face was beaten black and blue; her eyes were swollen; this was Monday morning; she said she had been hurt the night before.

An offer was made to show that the complainant accused Lawless of being the man immediately after she was hurt, but it was not allowed by the Court.

ADAM LASHER sworn—I saw complainant in the bed room at Mrs. Mowes' house; it was the time she got her hay money; she was badly bruised and injured.

Cross-Examined—Her husband was my grandfather.

The defence called THOMAS LAWLESS—Am brother of Michael Lawless; remember the Sunday evening; was home all the afternoon; saw him until dusk; he wanted my team to go out in the country a few miles with a friend from New York; after taking me across the bridge he and the man went off with it; don't know that I saw him after that.

EDWARD HALEY testified—Michael Lawless and one Kane came to my house one night last September; that is as near as I can get at it. They remained then about half an hour; I went along to Saugerties.

THOMAS ROURKE testified—I was with Mike Lawless one Sunday evening; had hurt my eye, and it pained me badly; got kind o' tight and went out to see a girl that night; when I came home, after 10 o'clock, I felt thirsty and went into the place of Lawless; Mike Lawless was there. He further testified that after this he went with Lawless to put out the team, and was with him after 11 o'clock.

On the cross-examination he could not tell when it was; said that he slept with Lawless that night; did not see prisoner's wife; think she was home; Lawless had a bed off the bar-room; went to bed at nearly 12 o'clock; certain I heard the clock strike ten when I was with my girl; have known Lawless ever since I was a little boy.

Mary Eckert and Eliza Sherman testified that complainant had said it was not Mike Lawless who had been in her house, but that Vandemark and Ennist were the men; that he further said the big bugs of Saugerties, one Russell, one Freligh and one Butzel, had offered her nephew $50 to come and swear it was Mike Lawless who committed the crime; complainant further said she did not get the money but got a new dress.

The Grand Jury came into court with a batch of indictments and were discharged.

Court then adjourned until Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock.

A Complaint from Ponckhockie.

We have received a touching epistle from a denizen of that romantic region, Ponckhockie, which, after making some corrections of its original vagueness of expression and eccentricities of grammar and orthography, we make out as follows: "The daily occurrence of fights between women in Ponckhockie has become a great nuisance. It is high time something was done. There are at least from four to five grand arguments every day, which very often result in one or more of the combatants getting knocked down, much to the discouragement of the defeated party. The language used is of the most profane kind, much to be regretted, as there are so many children (for which Ponckhockie is noted) living in the vicinity where the disgraceful scenes occur. At least eight women living in the same vicinity take turns to make things more lively. Mrs. Brady has been for a long time queen of the walk, which aroused the feelings of one Mrs. Doran, who proceeded with a club to uncrown the indignant queen, and did it with such credit that the neighbors promise, if the successful Doran will keep quiet until the 9th day of January, 1899, they will present her with a patent tongue bridle."

Other complaints have been made to us about the same matter, and in full sympathy with the sufferers. We join in expressing a sentiment felt in every Ponckhockie breast. "Mrs. Brady, et al. give us a rest."

SAUGERTIES.

—A number of our German citizens were seen going home last Saturday with baskets of rations on their arms and kegs of lager on their shoulders.

—The ladies of the M. E. Church will give a strawberry and ice-cream festival on the evenings of June 17th and 18th.

—Capt. Lorenzo Shaffer was in town yesterday. He is running on a steamboat between Newburgh and New York at present. He is looking tip-top and sports a nobby blue necktie.

—Charley Van Deusen put up a very handsome Ottawa beer fountain in his place Tuesday. "Dr. Chip" says it looks for all the world like the infernal machine Van Hosen intended to blow up the rebel ram Merrimac with.

—The boys can go a bathing now in the upper creek without fear of that alligator, as our friend Johnny Hardenbergh has induced him to come forth and live in his aquarium with two friendly inclined eels, by the offer of plenty of good pork and beans to eat and a little good whiskey on Sundays. As the excise law is only for hogs and not alligators, Johnny lets him have it.

—A horse, starting from somewhere near Battell's on the hill, ran away with a very nobby Wheeler & Wilson wagon, supposed to belong in Kingston. Running down the long hill approaching the bridge at a furious pace he took the left-hand passage at the bridge and fortunately no wagons were coming through at the time. Passing through without touching a thing he brought up behind the old brick store against a tree, splitting every spoke in one of the forward wheels, but otherwise not a thing was broken, which is nothing less than miraculous, considering the route he had come. After getting the horse away from the tree two young "sports" came running up out of breath and claimed the establishment. Getting in they lashed the poor horse into a run, and away they went up Lorrillard's hill at a break-neck pace, everybody wishing that the horse would throw them out.

COUNTY.

—Marlborough expects a good crop of berries this season.

—Two licenses have been granted in Plattekill.

—The annual meeting of the M. E. District Stewards for the Ellenville District will be held in Ellenville Wednesday.

—Why are not finger-posts put up at the crossings on the country roads? Nothing would help travelers more than this.

—Bill Bruyn from Illinois is visiting in Rosendale. He is a member of the Granger Association in the west, and carries the seal of his office with him in his vest pocket.

—Simon P. Keator of Rosendale has started a new grocery store in that place, while Peter Low has a new bakery in full running order, with an ice cream saloon and soda water fountain attached. Rosendale is certainly improving.

—Some of Corneil Winne's boarders of last summer have found other quarters for the coming season. They say they left Winne's because he sold rum, and now Corneil swears furiously at the rum, and says it has done him more injury than good.

—The apple trees in the town of Olive are being eaten up by the apple worm. So great a pest is this vermin that they swarm in the trees and meadows by the thousand. They crawl up the sides of the houses, through the open windows into the houses, and even find their way into the cellars, to the great detriment of cold victuals. The apple crop this year will undoubtedly be much smaller than usual on this account.

TRAGEDY AT ROXBURY.

Suicide of an Aged German.

ROXBURY, June 16.

This morning about ten o'clock Christian Kaltenbach, an unmarried German aged 63, committed suicide by hanging himself in his brother's barn. He was never of a high order of intellect and for the past two years has been in poor health. It is supposed that he put himself out of the way because a niece of his was about to be married. He was very much attached to her. A few days since in speaking of her he said that as she was going away he would go too. When found he was dead. Drs. Keator and Dart endeavored to resuscitate him, but in vain. It was his favorite niece who first found him hanging.

Old Paper-Makers.

SAUGERTIES, N. Y., May 18, 1874.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE PAPER TRADE JOURNAL:—Though our information comes somewhat late, still we feel that we have in our mill some good examples of the healthfulness of paper-making. The two engineers that have now charge of that department came here with Henry Barclay in 1826 to start a hand mill, but before the mill was finished the Fourdrinier machine came into use, and Jas. McDonald started the first engine, and has run one of them ever since. He has worked at paper-making 55 years and is now 69 years old and as active as any of his helpers.

Benjamin Yeoman has been in the business over 50 years, and we think he can take the prize among healthy paper-makers; his present weight is 380 lbs., his age 61 years, and he has been absent from the mill but very seldom in years past.

Our two machine tenders have worked here since they were boys; George Pollock, aged 57 years, has worked here 42 years, and Edward Miner, aged 54 years, has worked here 35 years.

Richard Martin is also an old paper-maker, 49 years at the business, 23 years in this mill and 68 years of age.

William Dean, Assistant Superintendent, has worked here 28 years, age 42 years.

We have engineer helpers that have worked here from 20 to 25 years, and hardly any one of our men has been with us less than ten years, and from that to 20 years.

We have a woman in the rag room that has sorted rags for over 25 years, and several that have sorted and cut rags from 15 to 20 years. This is our mite to your list.

Yours respectfully,
J. B. SHEFFIELD & SON.

An Important Invention.

W. J. Budington, formerly of this city, has succeeded in making artificial Portland cement, equal if not superior to the White Bros.' of London, England. This cement is a double silicate of lime and of alumina and possesses in an eminent degree the well-known property of hydraulicity, or capacity to set under water. It will bear after the lapse of the same period a tensile strain twice as great as the best hydraulic cement, and is not affected in the least by atmospheric changes. Frost has no injurious effect upon it. Mr. Budington is now with the Wallkill Lime and Cement Co., Hamburgh, New Jersey, at which place he succeeded in making the cement, and the company intend erecting works for its manufacture.

Piles.

If it were possible to portray the torture endured by millions who are troubled with internal, bleeding, external and itching piles, the picture would not be a pleasant one. The agonies of the cursed cannot be worse, and from these sufferings there seems no escape. But science has demonstrated there is a remedy, safe and reliable. Dr. J. Briggs' Pile Remedies are the climax of medical science. Sold by J. G. Kemble Stone Ridge.

VINEGAR BITTERS

VEGETABLE — FREE FROM — PURELY — DR. WALKER'S — CALIFORNIA — ALCOHOL — EUREKA — VINEGAR BITTERS

Dr. J. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters are a purely Vegetable preparation, made chiefly from the native herbs found on the lower ranges of the Sierra Nevada mountains of California, the medicinal properties of which are extracted therefrom without the use of Alcohol. The question is almost daily asked, "What is the cause of the unparalleled success of VINEGAR BITTERS?" Our answer is, that they remove the cause of disease, and the patient recovers his health. They are the great blood purifier and a life-giving principle, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system. Never before in the history of the world has a medicine been compounded possessing the remarkable qualities of VINEGAR BITTERS in healing the sick of every disease man is heir to. They are a gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver and Visceral Organs in Bilious Diseases.

The properties of DR. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS are Aperient, Diaphoretic, Carminative, Nutritious, Laxative, Diuretic, Sedative, Counter-Irritant Sudorific, Alterative, and Anti-Bilious.

Grateful Thousands proclaim VINEGAR BITTERS the most wonderful Invigorant that ever sustained the sinking system.

No Person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and vital organs wasted beyond repair.

Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, which are so prevalent in the valleys of our great rivers throughout the United States, especially those of the Mississippi, Ohio, Missouri, Illinois, Tennessee, Cumberland, Arkansas, Red, Colorado, Brazos, Rio Grande, Pearl, Alabama, Mobile, Savannah, Roanoke, James, and many others, with their vast tributaries, throughout our entire country during the Summer and Autumn, and remarkably so during seasons of unusual heat and dryness, are invariably accompanied by extensive derangements of the stomach and liver, and other abdominal viscera. In their treatment, a purgative, exerting a powerful influence upon these various organs, is essentially necessary. There is no cathartic for the purpose equal to DR. J. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS, as they will speedily remove the dark-colored viscid matter with which the bowels are loaded, at the same time stimulating the secretions of the liver, and generally restoring the healthy functions of the digestive organs.

Fortify the body against disease by purifying all its fluids with VINEGAR BITTERS. No epidemic can take hold of a system thus fore-armed.

Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the region of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia. One bottle will prove a better guarantee of its merits than a lengthy advertisement.

Scrofula, or King's Evil, White Swellings, Ulcers, Erysipelas, Swelled Neck, Goitre, Scrofulous Inflammations, Indolent Inflammations, Mercurial Affections, Old Sores, Eruptions of the Skin, Sore Eyes, etc. In these, as in all other constitutional Diseases, WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS have shown their great curative powers in the most obstinate and intractable cases.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism, Gout, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have no equal. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood.

Mechanical Diseases.—Persons engaged in Paints and Minerals, such as Plumbers, Type-setters, Gold-beaters, and Miners, as they advance in life, are subject to paralysis of the Bowels. To guard against this, take a dose of WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS occasionally.

For Skin Diseases, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt-Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-worms, Scald-head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters.

Pin, Tape, and other Worms, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. No system of medicine, no vermifuges, no anthelmintics will free the system from worms like these Bitters.

For Female Complaints, in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood, or the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters display so decided an influence that improvement is soon perceptible.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions, or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul; your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

EASTERN DIVISION AND BRANCHES

The direct and popular Route from all parts of ORANGE and ULSTER Counties to NEW YORK CITY.

And the great through route to Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Chicago, Cincinnati, and all points WEST.

Rondout, May 1st, 1874.

The attention of the public is respectfully invited to our Spring opening of Carpets, Dress Fabrics, General Dry Goods and Housekeeping Articles, and we confidently believe that a fair inspection will demonstrate our Stock to be second to none in this city.

These goods are of recent purchase and our best judgment has been exerted in selection of styles, varieties and adaption to the needs of this vicinity.

Every advantage to be gained from buying for Cash, and in discounts and differences on time bills, has been realized by us on these invoices, and as the old axiom "Goods well bought are half sold" is still a truism, we count on an active and satisfactory trade.

The practice of our firm in regard to marking profits is generally known, but we reiterate it here, as aiming for a large trade at small advances and with quick returns, rather than the old style of full profits, moderate sales, extended credits, and old goods held for original prices.

In the line of Carpets, we deem ourselves specially fortunate in having made almost an entire clearance at our annual stock taking (March 1st), and thus are not encumbered with old patterns, or hampered by necessity of sale of last year's goods at actual loss, but can offer our friends entirely fresh goods at prices now current. These goods are not bought in lots at few places, but culled from every leading stock in New York City that holds out an attraction or makes an extra inducement on price; and for variety, desirableness and cheapness, they are unexcelled in this city.

Our entire stock on main floor is unusually complete and attractive, and it will afford us pleasure to show you these Goods at your earliest convenience.

VINEGAR BITTERS

VEGETABLE — FREE FROM — ALCOHOL

PURELY — DR. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA — VINEGAR BITTERS

EUREKA

Dr. J. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters are a purely Vegetable preparation, made chiefly from the native herbs found on the lower ranges of the Sierra Nevada mountains of California, the medicinal properties of which are extracted therefrom without the use of Alcohol. The question is almost daily asked, "What is the cause of the unparalleled success of VINEGAR BITTERS?" Our answer is, that they remove the cause of disease, and the patient recovers his health. They are the great blood purifier and a life-giving principle, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system. Never before in the history of the world has a medicine been compounded possessing the remarkable qualities of VINEGAR BITTERS in healing the sick of every disease man is heir to. They are a gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver and Visceral Organs in Bilious Diseases.

The properties of DR. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS are Aperient, Diaphoretic, Carminative, Nutritious, Laxative, Diuretic, Sedative, Counter-Irritant Sudorific, Alterative, and Anti-Bilious.

Grateful Thousands proclaim VINEGAR BITTERS the most wonderful Invigorant that ever sustained the sinking system.

No Person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and vital organs wasted beyond repair.

Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, which are so prevalent in the valleys of our great rivers throughout the United States, especially those of the Mississippi, Ohio, Missouri, Illinois, Tennessee, Cumberland, Arkansas, Red, Colorado, Brazos, Rio Grande, Pearl, Alabama, Mobile, Savannah, Roanoke, James, and many others, with their vast tributaries, throughout our entire country during the Summer and Autumn, and remarkably so during seasons of unusual heat and dryness, are invariably accompanied by extensive derangements of the stomach and liver, and other abdominal viscera. In their treatment, a purgative, exerting a powerful influence upon these various organs, is essentially necessary. There is no cathartic for the purpose equal to DR. J. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS, as they will speedily remove the dark-colored viscid matter with which the bowels are loaded, at the same time stimulating the secretions of the liver, and generally restoring the healthy functions of the digestive organs.

Fortify the body against disease by purifying all its fluids with VINEGAR BITTERS. No epidemic can take hold of a system thus fore-armed.

Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the region of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia. One bottle will prove a better guarantee of its merits than a lengthy advertisement.

Scrofula, or King's Evil, White Swellings, Ulcers, Erysipelas, Swelled Neck, Goitre, Scrofulous Inflammations, Indolent Inflammations, Mercurial Affections, Old Sores, Eruptions of the Skin, Sore Eyes, etc. In these, as in all other constitutional Diseases, WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS have shown their great curative powers in the most obstinate and intractable cases.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism, Gout, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have no equal. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood.

Mechanical Diseases.—Persons engaged in Paints and Minerals, such as Plumbers, Type-setters, Gold-beaters, and Miners, as they advance in life, are subject to paralysis of the Bowels. To guard against this, take a dose of WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS occasionally.

For Skin Diseases, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt-Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-worms, Scald-head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters.

Pin, Tape, and other Worms, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. No system of medicine, no vermifuges, no anthelmintics will free the system from worms like these Bitters.

For Female Complaints, in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood, or the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters display so decided an influence that improvement is soon perceptible.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions, or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul; your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

The direct and popular Route from all parts of ORANGE and ULSTER Counties to NEW YORK CITY.

And the great through route to Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Chicago, Cincinnati, and all points WEST.

Rondout, May 1st, 1874.

The attention of the public is respectfully invited to our Spring opening of Carpets, Dress Fabrics, General Dry Goods and Housekeeping Articles, and we confidently believe that a fair inspection will demonstrate our Stock to be second to none in this city.

These goods are of recent purchase and our best judgment has been exerted in selection of styles, varieties and adaptation to the needs of this vicinity.

Every advantage to be gained from buying for Cash, and in discounts and differences on time bills, has been realized by us on these invoices, and as the old axiom "Goods well bought are half sold" is still a truism, we count on an active and satisfactory trade.

The practice of our firm in regard to marking profits is generally known, but we reiterate it here, as aiming for a large trade at small advances and with quick returns, rather than the old style of full profits, moderate sales, extended credits, and old goods held for original prices.

In the line of Carpets, we deem ourselves specially fortunate in having made almost an entire clearance at our annual stock taking (March 1st), and thus are not encumbered with old patterns, or hampered by necessity of sale of last year's goods at actual loss, but can offer our friends entirely fresh goods at prices now current. These goods are not bought in lots at few places, but culled from every leading stock in New York City that holds out an attraction or makes an extra inducement on price; and for variety, desirableness and cheapness, they are unexcelled in this city.

Our entire stock on main floor is unusually complete and attractive, and it will afford us pleasure to show you these Goods at your earliest convenience.
